Toledo

Mr. G. C. Bellamy, his daughter, Miss Gertrude, also Mr. W. Riley, were in Brockville recently.

Mr. Charles Sharkey, of far distant Alberta, is visiting his mother in this village.

Mr. Gordon Sutherland, of Montreal, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grey.

Misses Marguerite and Mildred Seymour spent the week-end at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrell Phillips and family and Miss Mabel Phillips motored to Phillipsville on Sunday.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrell Phillips narrowly escaped being destroyed by fire on Sunday morning, 16th inst. Only for the most strenuous work on the part of the occupants, with help from the neighbors, saved the building. A small loss on contents and building, covered by insurance.

Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bellamy's for the holiday were Mr. and Mrs. W. Henry and family, of Brockville, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rabb and family, of Smiths Falls.

Visitors to Toledo and vicinity were Mr. G. Traynor, of Watertown, N.Y., and Mr. Fred Gray, of Rockport.

The social held in the Town Hall on the evening of May 24th, under the auspices of the Methodist Church, was a decided success. The repast served was excellent and the program was also fine. The Misses Goodfellow, of Athens, upheld their reputation as good entertainers and the local talent did excellently. Rev. Mr. Comerford acted as chairman.

Eloida

The stork visited the home of Morton C. Knapp last week. It's a baby girl.

Re the discussion Athens hall. Your scribe would suggest a series of dances during open season—dance every night and enforced attendance. The individual who attends one must attend all or present a doctor's certificate of unfitness. Engage a man as instructor who can dance—say Nimble Jigger from Hubbard's Corners—and confine all expenses of the snature to the one edifice under penalty of a heavy fine! Probably then the people who do not care to partake of its pleasures will not be embarrassed by amateurs prodding around, wiggling and twisting, shaking themselves in one's face every time a bit of music is rendered. The shoulder shaking, clyde-stepping, clod hopping of the day can only be accounted for by the slump in dancing of the last decade. The modern dance has made every other amusement seem like a prayer meeting in comparison.

Miss Thelma Craig, principal of the college near Newboro, spent the week-end at her home with her parents.

The clergy of the Christian Standard Church of America were in conference at the Eloida Camp Ground last week and the public were in attendance on Sunday. These preachers at this season of the year congregate annually to spend approximately the same dates observed by the disciples of Jesus, who were ten days waiting for their Pentecost. They report the 1920 meeting the best on record.

Mrs. Rachel Berney spent the week-end and the 24th at her home here.

Great was the disappointment of some folks we know—it rained on the 24th.

Charleston

Mr. Ralph and sisters, Lansdowne, were Sunday visitors at R. Foster's.

Miss Kate Halliday, Toronto, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Halliday, over the 24th.

A great many attended the funeral at Old Leaf on Sunday afternoon of the late George Johnson.

Miss Beatrice Hudson is the guest of relatives here on the 24th.

A. Jacobs and niece, Miss B. Karley, Lansdowne, were visitors at M. J. Kavanagh's on Sunday.

Miss Jacobs, Lansdowne, was a Sunday visitor at Mrs. E. Webster's.

J. E. Webster is making many improvements to his residence.

T. Hudson, the Misses Julia, Nellie and Beatrice Hudson, spent Sunday at Frankville.

Although the day is threatening a great many are spending it at the Lake.
