COATSWORTH-KIPP

A pretty private wedding took place yesterday afternoon at six o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kipp, Dover street, when their daughter, Miss Mabel Louise Kipp, was united in marriage to Mr. Kenneth Coatsworth. Rev. Dr. J. R. Batisby officiated.

The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Clara Kipp, and the groomsmen were Harry Coatsworth. The bride wore a becoming gown of white batiste, and the bridesmaid was attired in white lawn. Many beautiful presents testified to the esteem in which the couple are held by their many friends.

After the wedding a dainty lunch was served, and the happy pair left on the evening train for Detroit. On their return they will take up their residence on Dover street.

The factory of the Chatham Carriage Company, Limited, is located on the premises on William street, which were until recently occupied by McKeough & Trotter.

BOWLING ASSOCIATION OFFICERS RESIGN IN BODY

Red Hot Row at Meeting Held by Members Yesterday Afternoon

New List of Officers Elected for the Season of 1908

The big row among the members of the Chatham Lawn Bowling Association came off yesterday afternoon on schedule time, as predicted by The Planet. The meeting was held in County Clerk Jonas Gosnell's office, and was attended by nearly all of the old and new members of the club, and was one of the stormiest that has taken place in this city for a long time. It was, however, a gentlemanly row, and there were no insinuations of a nasty nature. The men who had grievances to air did not beat about the bush, but came in a straightforward manner and made their complaints without any pros or cons. The complainants came up well stocked with charges against the officers of last year, and the latter were present, and well supplied with a bunch of excuses, which, in the opinion of the meeting, "did not go."

As has been previously outlined in this journal, the prime cause of the fracas was the alleged Cheap John reception tendered the visiting bowlers at the time of the tournament on July first. At the meeting yesterday afternoon, this was referred to, and was laid at the door of the officers for the past year, whom it was claimed had shown very poor management. The President, Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer, who were all present, were brought up on the carpet to answer to these charges. They each had all blamed the other, and were not responsible for the lack of reception, but the other members could not see it that way, and the upset of it all was that last year's officers had executed a bad plan in a body.

The claim was made that the officers had not aided by the constitution and by-laws of the club.

"Let us see the constitution and by-laws, then," demanded one of the members.

The Secretary explained that the club had no copy of the constitution and by-laws, as they had all been left. This statement was followed by a roar of laughter, and more denunciations.

Afterwards, the election of officers for the coming year took place, resulting in the following being appointed:

Honorary Patron—N. H. Stevens.
Honorary President—Robert Gray.
President—Lieut.-Col. J. B. Rankin.
Vice-Pres.—Rev. J. W. Hodgins.
Secy.-Treas.—E. Fremlin.

Executive Officers—The above officers along with Messrs. Montgomery, L. E. Tilsen and A. E. Fike.

The Bowling Club are of the opinion that the above draft is the strongest, most painstaking and energetic material which could be secured to take hold of the management, and it is sincerely hoped that all the members will lend their assistance and make the club a success during the coming year.

The matter of new and private grounds was not taken up at yesterday afternoon's meeting, but The Planet understands that it will be at a later meeting. A site in the western portion of South Chatham is said to be meeting with favor.

Was She Poisoned?

Dr. George T. McKeough, coroner, left this afternoon for Raleigh, where he will investigate the death of the late Mrs. William Bell.

It is suspected that the deceased woman died of some kind of poisoning. She lived on the 9th Concession of Raleigh, and she has been in poor health and melancholy for some time.

She died Wednesday night at nine o'clock. The circumstances surrounding the death are very sad, and it is expected that the coroner's investigation will be all that will be necessary to solve the mystery of her death.

FLEMING IS FOUND

Mrs. Ada Hardis of 4 Wellington St., Says He is Alive

Is in Wallaceburg, Where He is Working at Sugar Factory

The Planet had barely gone to press yesterday afternoon, and the carrier boys were still busy delivering it to subscribers, when a lady called at the office of this G. H. J. and stated that she could give information regarding the young man David Fleming, about whom an article appeared in yesterday's issue stating that his relatives in England were anxious about him, and had heard that he was dead.

The lady was Mrs. Ada Hardis, who keeps a boarding house at 4 Wellington street. "Fleming is alive and well," she announced, "and there is no truth in the story that he was killed. As was stated in your paper to-day, he boarded at my place after coming to Chatham, and he was employed by the Board of Works Department. He had been living right here in this city till a week ago Wednesday, when he left for Wallaceburg to accept an offer of a position in the sugar factory there. He was in the city last Sunday, and he said that he would be in again this coming Sunday. His name is David Fleming, he came here last September, and he is about nineteen years old, so I feel sure that he must be the same man as the one inquired for in to-day's Planet."

HAS RETURNED

Dr. J. P. Rutherford and Mrs. Rutherford have returned from a trip to Chicago, Ill., and Rochester, Minn., where the Doctor visited some of the noted operating rooms. He combined business with pleasure and had a very enjoyable trip.

At Rochester, Minn., he visited Mahew Bros., and at Chicago, he called on Ochsner Bros., both surgical firms of the highest reputation. His object was to get the latest surgical technique.

"There are just two brothers in each of these families, and both of these firms are doing as good work as you will see anywhere," said Dr. Rutherford, when asked for an interview this morning. "We had only one shower while we were away, and that was in Chicago yesterday morning. The frost was even more severe in the country I passed through than it was in this section. I noticed that much of the corn in the various States along our route of travel was withered up. From what I saw of the farming country out there, I have come to the conclusion that our own Kent county is away ahead of any other agricultural district in the world."

CANADA COMPANY CASE

J. F. Edgar, of Toronto, has entered an appeal from the Roth, Argue, Bernard Company, in the appeal filed against them by Mr. Farquharson. This is the case where Mr. Farquharson brings an action against this company, for trespassing on his land, in search of oil. His farm is Canada Company property.

The case will likely come up at the December sittings of the non-jury assizes.

A man's virtues should not be measured by his particular efforts but by his ordinary actions.

WAS KILLED ON M. C. R.

George Smith, Colored Section Man, Meets Terrible Death

Run Over by Freight, Which Severs Leg and Arm From Body

George Smith, colored, aged eighteen years, a section man employed on the Michigan Central Railway, was struck by a freight engine on that road near Fargo at five o'clock yesterday afternoon, and received injuries from which he died at St. Joseph's Hospital, here, at 9:30 last evening. The remains were afterwards conveyed to Burrows & Sons' morgue, King street, where they at present remain awaiting removal to his home near Dresden.

The killing, it appears, was purely accidental. Smith was working with the rest of the section gang near Fargo yesterday afternoon, when the alarm was given for an oncoming freight and all got off the tracks. Smith, it appears, forgot his coat between the rails. He made a hurried effort to snatch it from in front of the engine, slipped and fell lengthwise on the track, the wheels passing over his left leg and right arm, almost severing them from the body.

The unfortunate man was at once brought to this city and taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where amputation of the injured limbs was attempted. Smith had, however, sustained such a loss of blood already, that he could not stand the strain, and he breathed his last at 9:30.

Burrows & Sons' ambulance was sent for and the remains were taken to the morgue. They will be conveyed to Dresden this evening, from whence they will be taken to the deceased's late home on concession 11, lot 17, Chatham Township, where he formerly lived with his widowed mother.

The deceased was a bright, industrious young man who had won the esteem and respect of his associates, and his family will have the sympathy of the community in their sudden and terrible bereavement. The late Mr. Smith was unmarried, and besides his mother, he leaves two brothers, Charles and Madison, to mourn his loss.

The funeral will take place to Dresden to-morrow.

OUT ON BAIL

Charles Coleman was allowed out $200 this morning. This is the young man who is charged with firing a revolver at Morley Tickner, with the intention of doing actual bodily harm. His stepfather put up the necessary security for his appearance and Charles is again enjoying free air and freedom.

Mr. Coleman's employer thinks a lot of him, and in fact he has many sympathizers in his present trouble. He is evidently a good workman, and he claims that he only discharged the revolver in order to scare Tickner, who bothered him.

It is alleged that Coleman is the young man who some time ago was walking along the street with his lady friend when another young man came up behind them and, it is claimed, made an insulting remark. Coleman did not hesitate for a minute, but, turning around, hit Mr. Fresh Man somewhere near the mouth, and there was a groan and a dull thud as the mouthy one hit the pavement. The incident became public property on the streets, and all who have heard of it sympathize with Coleman, and think he did the right thing.

THE PASSION PLAY

Large crowds are daily thronging to Wonderland to see the Great Passion Play which is being put on there this week. In spite of the inclement weather, the attendance has been far larger than was expected. Perfect satisfaction is expressed by all who witness it.

There are only two more days now, and those who have not seen it should not miss this last opportunity. Every person in Chatham should see this production, and those who overlook this chance will indeed have cause for regret.

SUNDAY PAPERS

Windsor, Oct. 3.—At a meeting of the Lord's Day Alliance, Ald. McNece charged the city police with not doing their duty. Others pointed out lax observance of the clause relating to Sunday papers. Ald. McNece said he proposed to take steps to have the law relating to the police commission changed so that two commissioners instead of one would be elected to office and thus be responsible to the police.

The world is too apt to turn up its nose at virtue clothed in rags.

EVERYBODY likes to look well, which is both natural and proper.

The careful spending of money to that end is something that appeals to everybody, too.

That is our reason for the Cowan Shoe, with its characteristics of excellent style and quality at a moderate price.
