WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 27, 1904

Willow Bank Cemetery

DEAR SIR—Will you kindly advise the readers of your highly valued paper concerning the obtaining of Willow Bank Cemetery, on what conditions when, for what, and for how much, and oblige

[The above enquiry is no doubt the result of the interest lately manifested in the condition of the cemetery. The ground which comprises the cemetery was donated to the residents of Ward 8 in the year 1880 by the late John W. Barris, on the condition that it be fenced, ornamented and laid out in lots for a cemetery. In our next issue we shall give fuller details of the transaction—Rd.]

World War.

The general opinion now is that the Sydney strike is broken and will soon be over.

Ex-president Paul Kruger died at Clarens, Switzerland, on July 14th. He was chief executive of the Transvaal republic from 1883 until its end in 1902. He will be buried in the Transvaal.

The London Express draws the following conclusions from the recent experiment of England's combined naval and military maneuvers. The volunteer force is not well trained; the army is too large, too expensive and inefficient; the navy and torpedo boat flotilla guard the existence of the empire; no enemy can effect a landing on English soil.

The Baptists of the North-West have brought an action for libel against the Winnipeg Telegram in consequence of charges made by the paper against one of their ministers, Rev. W. C. Vincent.

A specimen of the shell Bessis Procoidalis, or as the Scotch call it, "Roaring Buckie" was recently found near Montreal in a strata of sand gravel. It is probably a relic of that remote period when the glacial area extended as far south as the Hudson.

The wreck of the Canadian steamer Islander, which was lost in the Alaskan waters three years ago with one hundred persons on board, has been located by the Neptune Salvage Co. She will probably be raised and her treasure of gold, amounting to about $70,000, recovered.

St. John Exhibition.

From numerous and conclusive indications, this year's St. John, N. B. Exhibition, July 28th to 29th September, will be the best held yet. The demand for floor space has been altogether unprecedented and has taken out all the best exhibits of the previous years.

The prize list is now being sent out. A number of extra classes and special prizes have been added making it very attractive to the agricultural community. Those desiring a copy should send in their name and address to Manager Hubbard of St. John, N. B.

Mr. Fred G. Spencer, whose name is associated in the public mind with the bringing to the provinces of Miss Jessie Macfichlin, Madam; Nordic, and other musical treats, has just returned from a tour through the principal music centres in America, where he has selected for the Exhibition Association the very best amusement features available at an expenditure greatly exceeding that of any previous year. His tour has been eminently successful. The aggregation secured will, undoubtedly, prove the most attractive ever seen in St. John. It includes Adzie's Lions, the most thrilling and popular show seen during recent years. Mr. Spencer's enviable reputation as an amusement provider is certain to be still further enhanced by this his latest venture. The famous English Glee Club, and the Vitagraph Moving Pictures have also been secured.

The fame of the Meister Singers is world-wide. They stand alone in their class, and were great favorites with the late Queen as they now are with our King.

The Vitagraph Co., being the largest manufacturers of films in the world, naturally carry with them when touring, the latest, tallest and best selection of pictures. All no table Russo-Japanese War Episodes occurring between now and September will take their first appearance on the screen at the St. John Exhibition.

One of the chief features of the Fair will be the Daily Horse Show at which the leading breeders in the province will be represented with their best. This will be run on the most up-to-date lines, with all the latest fashionable innovations. A good Horse Show has everywhere proven a splendid exhibition feature, and the St. John Exhibition Association guarantees a good horse show.

Baby's Own Tablets.

For Weak Sickly Children During the Hot Weather Months.

Thousands of infants and children die through the hot weather months, because summer complaints and stomach troubles come suddenly, and mothers do not have the means of hand to promptly check and care them. In homes where Baby's Own Tablets are used these little lives can be saved. So home in the land where there are children should be without the Tablets. They promptly cure all stomach and bowel troubles and give relief to teething children, and the mother has a guarantee that she will not lose an infant or child because of these Tablets. You can get them by mail at 25 cents a box, or writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Another Blaze.

Shortly before 12 o'clock last Saturday night the Fire Co. was again called out, this time in consequence of a blaze discovered in a small out-building near Mr. K. E. Harris' store. In a remarkably short time the fire men were on the spot and had two streams of water on the fire. The building was in a decidedly favorable location for producing a big fire; being within a few feet of buildings on each side, and was filled with paper, straw, oil, tar and other combustible materials. Fortunately there was no wind and owing to the promptness of the firemen the blaze was soon subdued and what might easily have been a big conflagration was averted. Mr. Harris' store, the office of the Wolfville Coal and Lumber Co., and other buildings were in great danger, but were saved without injury. The cause of the fire is unknown, but as the building was not locked was probably caused by some person throwing down a lighted match. Fires are getting to be uncomfortably frequent in Wolfville, and the town is to be congratulated on having a Fire Company able to promptly and energetically meet every emergency.

The Clifton House.

The Clifton property at Windsor, which Judge Halliburton, "Sam Slick," owned, and where he lived for many years, has been leased by John W. Churchill, Hantsport. Its present proprietor, to George N. Towell, who intends to keep a first-class house. No doubt it will prove an attractive place to American tourists and to other travellers, who like quiet romantic and picturesque surroundings. G. N. Towell was for five years the steward of King's College.

The Clifton property contains two and one-half acres of orchard, and a grove of trees between four and five acres in extent. The house has been put in thorough repair by Mr. Churchill at a large cost. All the rooms have been painted and papered. There are twenty rooms in the house, fourteen bed rooms. The parlor, sitting room and smoking room are all spacious rooms. The bath room is nicely fitted up. There is hot and cold water and telephone connection with Windsor and the outer world. The house presents some curious features of olden times—the large window frames with their quaint eight by ten panes of glass. The great fire place in the dining room where in the days of old, large logs of wood were burned and as yet if so desired, the copper boiler let into the big chimney to furnish hot water, and the old-fashioned tank built to last forever, as each thing were constructed in the days of our grandfathers, and the four old-fashioned hook cases which belonged to Judge Halliburton and which form part of the furniture of the Clifton House, are some of the old time objects which attract attention and interest.

The house was formally opened to the public a few days ago by Mr. Towell. He pronounced the services of the 68th regimental band, and at eight o'clock the band marched to the Clifton grounds, where during the evening it played acceptably. It was a pleasant evening after the great heat of the day, and a large number of people listened to the music and walked about the beautiful grounds. Seats were provided. Ice cream, cake and temperance drinks were furnished, and a number of the spectators were shown all through the house by Mrs. Towell.

The Crops.

B. W. Chipman, secretary for agriculture, issues the following synopsis of crop prospects in Nova Scotia: The crop reports for this year were made returnable to the office of agriculture during the first week in July. Upward of 100 reports have been received, these reports cover the most important agricultural districts in the province and may be considered as giving a fairly accurate estimate up to the date of their make-up. Although the winter was remarkably cold, containing nearly with heavy snow falls, perhaps on the whole the coldest winter the province has had for many years, notwithstanding this fact opened early, and in many parts of the province growth was remarkably good up to June 1st. Although in a few districts in several counties growth was retarded by cold and lack of rain, and the average reports from all parts of the province show considerable falling off in most crops, refreshing showers during the week beginning July 11th in Cape Breton considerably improved the outlook for grass on low lands and very much brightened the prospects for grains and roots. But in many parts of the province dry weather continuing so long will leave the hay crop considerably under the average. According to the reports received, the total for hay on upland for the whole province is 75 per cent of a full crop. On dyke land 85 per cent, on intervals 85 per cent, and total average for the province for potatoes and roots is 85 per cent. Oats and other grains, 80 per cent. Roadways 85 per cent. Should rain come soon, hay on low land and intervals may be somewhat increased, and it is possible that reasonable crops during the next few weeks would bring potatoes and roots close up to the average. The indications are that the fruit crop will be very good indeed, and that there is some increase in the number of dairy and beef cattle.

The municipalities of the French River and Ottawa Valley want a canal made from Georgian Bay to Montreal for the grain traffic.

At the session of the Divorce Court presided over by Mr. Justice Graham at Halifax on Wednesday, the case of Otis Engwell, of Port Williams, against his wife, Deborah, now living at St. John, Mr. Kenny, petitioner's counsel, put in the citation and evidence taken under commission at St. John before Judge Forbes and moved for a decree dissolving the marriage. The judge took the case under consideration and will give his decision next week.

The death of Capt. J. Taylor Wood, one of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens of Halifax, occurred at his residence, in that city on Tuesday morning, at the age of 74 years. Capt. Wood, who was a frequent visitor to Wolfville, had a most interesting career, having served with marked distinction in the confederate navy at the time of the U. S. Civil war. He also took part in the war between the United States and Mexico. He was a nephew of Jefferson Davis, and his mother was a daughter of Gen. Zachary Taylor, president of the U. S. in 1849-50.

Among the many brilliant achievements was the flight of the cruiser, Tallahassee from Halifax, while the ships of the enemy were outside the harbor ready to pounce upon her, and the running of the blockade at Wilmington, N. C. Captured at the close of the war with President Davis, he escaped with Gen. John C. Breckinridge, crossed from Florida to Cuba in an open boat, and in 1865 came to Halifax where he since resided.
