All interested in the welfare of neglected and delinquent children are urged to attend the annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society of Kings County, to be held at the Council Chamber on Thursday evening of next week. The staff of the Wolfville telephone exchange gave a most efficient and satisfactory service in securing and furnishing latest election returns last Thursday evening. Their painstaking and courteous efforts are certainly deserving of commendation. Might THE ACADIAN suggest that one way of demonstrating the fact would be to leave at the exchange a slight token that their good work was appreciated. At this time of year a barrel or box of choice valley fruit would no doubt be acceptable to the "hello" girls. We have no authority to make this suggestion, but it is yours for what it is worth.
