I was a great sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation. I had no appetite, became greatly debilitated, and was constantly afflicted with Healasche and Dizziberation of the prescribed for me, at various times, without affording more than temporary relief, finally commenced taking Ayer's Pills. I was troubled, for over a year, with Loss of Appetite, and General Debility. I commenced taking Ayer's Pills, and, before fuishing half a box of this medicine, my appetite and strength were restored.—C. O. Clark, Danbury, Conn.

— C. O. Ciark, Danoury, Conn. Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered Stomach and Liver. I suffered for over three years with Headache, Indirection, and Constipation. I had no appetite, and was weak and nerrous most of the time.

BY USING three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and, at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured. My digestive organs are now in good order, and I am in perfect health.—Philip Lockwood, Topeka, Kans.

In this frame of mind he fell easily in to the control of Offlit. That worthy had not come under the notice of the law for the part he took in the attack on the Belding house; he had not been recognized by hanging on board the steamer "Aller" before the arrival of the vessel at Bremerhaver.

As he drew near his nouse, rarnham caught a glimpse of light drapery upon Mrs. Belding's piazza, and went over to relieve her from anxiety by telling her the news of the day. When he had got half way across the lawn, he saw Alice rise from beside her mother as if to go. Mrs. Belding signed for her to resume her seat. Farnham felt a slighteensation her seat. Farnham felt a slightsensation of anger. "It is unworthy of her," he thought, "to avoid me in that manner. I must let her see she is in no danger

He gave his hand cordially to Mrs. Belding and bowed to Alice without a word. He then briefly recounted the news to the elder lady, and assured her that there was no probability of any further disturbance of the peace.

"But we shall have our policemen here all the same to-night, so that you may alsep with a double sense of security."
