At R. McKay & Co's. - Saturday, Sept. 11th, 1909

The Great Sale of EMBROIDER

3 Manufacturers' Stocks Now Going at Great Reductions

20 Cartoons Fine Nainsook Corset Cover Embroidery, worth 19c yard reg. 30c, Saturday Sale Price

Selected from the big purchase 20 cartoons of lovely Corset Cover Embroidery, 17 inches wide, in pretty eyelet patterns. On sale to-morrow morning sharp at 8.30 at a big drop in price. Visit this department to-morrow and share in this grand bargain event, at per yard

2,000 yards of Beautiful Embroideries and Insertions, Newest 1910 Patterns = A Great Sale =

Come and view the prettiest lot of Embroideries and Insertions ever placed on sale in Hamilton, in fillet, eyelet and floral designs. Note the price reductions:

At 29c yard, worth regularly 40c At 14c yard, worth regularly 20c At 9c yard, worth regularly 12c At 19c yard, worth regularly 30c At 11c yard, worth regularly 15c At 5c yard, worth regularly 8c

WOMEN'S NEW AUTUMN WEARABLES COMMAND YOUR ATTENTION NOW. A grand display awaits you at this store to-morrow. Many special sales will be a strong feature for Saturday's big selling.

Tremendous Purchase and Sale of the Newest Autumn Suitings Sharp at 8.30 Saturday Morning

2,700 yards Shadow Stripe Satin Venetian Suitings, Worth Regularly $1.00 and $1.25, Saturday Sale price

On sale to-morrow positively one of the greatest Suiting bargains ever placed before the women of Hamilton, in up-to-date, high-class materials, consisting of the newest color effects and best of all the newest style goods; 44 to 48 inches wide; purchased by our European buyer from a leading Manchester manufacturer in need of ready money. Spot cash did the trick—brought to Hamilton for Hamilton women one of the prettiest linese ever placed on sale by this store. Perfect shades of brown, myrt le, reseda, smoke grey, taupe, ashes of roses, Burgundy, pruna, wistaria, amethyst, navy, Copenhagen and black. Don't miss this sale, the best of the season at per yard 69c. of the season at per yard 69c

Ready-to-Wear Dept.

Fall Suits

A smart tailored Suit in all wool goods in navy, wistaria, black and green, long semi-fitted coat, button trimmed and pleated skirts, splendid value $25.50

Skirts $2.98

good assortment in tweeds, green and navy, picely red, pleated and plain; regular $5.50, for ... $2.98

Children's Coats

Our new line of Children's Coats, all complete, in all colors and sizes, nicely tailored coats, trimmed with self strapping and buttons, ranging in prices from $3.95 to $10.00 and $12.00

Saturday Specials in Silk Dept.

59c Yard

and have a beautiful French finish; the regular ice is $1.00; the price Saturday will be almost

$1.50 Black Yard Wide Taffeta for 97c

Clean-Up Sale Wash Collars

Regular 25c Wash Collars for 15c Each

Regular 15c Swiss Embroidered Handkerchiefs, Saturday Sale Price 3 for 25c

500 dozen Swiss Embroidery and Lace Edged Handkerchiefs aost half price. Take advantage of this splendid sale event.

Reg. $1.25 Chiffon Auto Veils for Saturday 75c Each 10 dozen Chiffon Auto Veils, all shades in the lot; worth regula

Decided Saturday Bargains in Jewelry

Regular 75c, Gilt and Enamel Belt Pins for Saturday 35c each Regular 50c Gold-plated Beauty Pins in pearl settings, for Satur Regular 50c Dutch Collar pins, in cameo bands, for Saturday 25c

Marvellous Bargains in Blouses and Underskirts

THIRD FLOOR

$1.50 Waists for 98c

$3 Waists for $1.49

$2 Moire Underskirts for $1.19

We will put on sale ten dozen only of Black Wool Moriette Underskirts, made of superior quality, deep tucked dust flounce, full skirt, wirth regular $2, Saturday's sale price$1.19

Specials in Whitewear

$1 Gowns for 69c

Corset Covers for 19c

Ladies' Fine White Nainsook Night
Gowns, made with yoke and trimmed sook and trimmed with embroidery, worth regular $1.00, lace, all sizes, Saturday's sale price

Children's Department

Silk Bonnets for 19c

Children's Dresses for 49c

New Kimono Material Specials

Just arrived, a large assortment of A nice line of Cashmerettes, in felton Vellons, in shades of blue, old

First Showing Fall Underwear and Hosiery

Exceptional Values for Saturday

Table Cloths

Slightly imperfect table cloths, bordered all around, pure linen, 2, 21/2 and 3 yard sizes, regular $2.25, for $1.50; regular $3.50, for $2.25

Bath Towels 29c

Extra large striped Bath Towels heavy, absorbent weave, regular 40c

Odd Napkins 121/2c

odd Napkins, pure linen, slightly imperfect, 5% size, hemmed, ready for use, worth $2.50, for ... 121/2c each

Flannelette Sheeting 35c

72 inch Flannelette Sheeting, soft, warm finish, worth 45c yard, special

Towelings

Pure Linen Toweling, heavy, absorbent weaves, regular 121/2c, for .. 10c Regular 16c, for 121/20

Flannelettes 10c

R. McKay & Co.

Katharine's Sacrifice

TO THE PARTY OF TH

Katharine stood at the gate, watching the young man vanish in the summer twilight, with a new and altogether inexplicable interset rousing her heart. Then letting the latch click, she walked back up the path, stooped for her basket, and approached the door, still in the same thoughtful way.

"He looked very troubled, and seemed so tired, I wish I had asked him in to rest. Cousin Luey would have gladly welcomed him, since he is an acquaintance of Gordon's."

Sarah was waiting just inside the door.

"Have you met the mistress; liss Katharine." she asked in a somewhat flustered and semi-cross manner. Katharine looked surprised.

"Is Mrs. Smythe paused a little, and then said, timidly, "I am sorry, dear one, that you do not like Katharine; but you must not be jealous of her, Gordon, if was more take your place."

"Oh, I know all about that nonsense!"

was Gordon's rough and curt reply. He turned his attention to his supper, but his thoughts were all on Katharine. Accustomed as he was to conquest for him were as inexplicable as the were disaggreeable; it was wonderful how it haunted him. Even when he was miles away, in the roar and bustle of looder. The work of the roar and bustle of looder. The looked surprised.

"Is Mrs. Smythe paused a little, and then said, timidly, "I am sorry, dear one, that you do not like Katharine; who as I katharine; but you must not be jealous of her, Gordon's who, it now a sorry, dear one, that you do not like Katharine; who as I katharine; but you must not be jealous of her, Gordon's rough and curt reply.

He turned his attention to his supper, but his thoughts were all on Katharine. Accustomed as he was to conquest for him were as inexplicable as the were disaggreeable; it was wonderful won'th haunted him. Even when he was miles away, in the roar and bustle of looder.

metter come and talk to me," broke a man's voice from the small sitting-om. It was a quiet, slow and almost usical voice, but Katharine derived no nusical voice, but Kannau.

pléasure from hearing it.
She stood in the hall and let Mer eyes rest on her cousin's form, lounging luxuriously in the most comfortable chair, an expensive cigar between his white brandy-and-soda on the able at his side.

"Gordon, then you are here?" was all he could say, surprised, bewildered, and istressed, though, why or how she ould not properly have told, except hat the distress sgemed vaguely singled with her interest for the young part into the country of the country into the country int

Mr. Smythe lifted himself out of the chair, and came toward her as he spoke, a look of bold admiration expressed on his dark, handsome face, as he calmly surveyed the girl's delicate beauty.

"I am always glad to see you here, Gordon," she answered, coldly, "for your mother's sake." Then moving to the window to escape his very steadlast gaze, "Does she know you are come?"

A fierce gleam of passionate anger flashed across Gordon Smythe's face. Katharine's indifference and dislike were simply maddening to a nature so vain and self-glorious as his. With a reckless gesture he flung his cigar into the empty grate, and drank off the remains of the brandy-and-soda, then he followed the girl to the open window go I must. Ledstone is too small a place to hold foreign and from her little room, "but go I must. Ledstone is too small a place to hold foreign and from her little room, "but go I must. Ledstone is too small a place to hold foreign and me How naverate."

and you ten that general an out the property of the wind a broken sigh and a halfund, indeed, Miss Katharine, it is cren't my fault, no how! Master ordon was that firm, he quite frighten a me like; and when I came and told in. that the young gentleman as he arned me about had been, miss, why, bup and swore most dreadful like; and had I was his mother didn't hear him.

Then with a broken sigh and a halfimpatient gesture, as though at her firm, and said her prayers, rested her beautiul head on the pillow, and was soon as leep and in dreamland.

But in all her dreams none came to warn her of the dark shadow that was even then creeping, slowly but surely ver her life.

hatharine, from the very first, had shown the young man her undisguised dislike and contempt for the calm way in which he accepted his mother's devotion, and permitted her to slave and tire herself out as she did perpetually. The girl always contrasted him with the memory of her father, gentle, chival-rous, manly, tender leaves to the first hand as permit any woman, young or old, to be treated with any but the deepest respect and reverence. Had her father been brought in contact with Gordon Smythe, Katharine determined, with a thrill of pride and loyalty, the young don Smythe, Katharine determined, with a thrill of pride and loyalty, the young fellow would have been given one lesson, at least, in manners, if not by words, then by other means less pleasant and more forcible.

Many and many a time Katharine had started to her feet to save the mother a journey upstairs or somewhere to started to her leet to save the hard a journey upstairs or somewhere to fetch something that Gordon had lang-fetch something and was pleased to reuidly forgotten, and was pleased to require, and the disgust of her gray eyes as she fulfilled her self-imposed mission, brought an angry flush to the man's uidly forgotten handsome face.

On this evening she felt an unconquerable aversion to being in Gordon's company, even for a few moments, so, when Mrs. Smythe sent up word that supperwas ready, she returned an affectionate message to the effect that her head ached, she was very tired, and had gone to bed.

to bed.

The scowl deepened on Gordon's face as he heard this; he knew only too well what had sent the girl upstairs; but Mrs. Smythe was quite anxious.

"Katharine would go to Ralston's farm for the eggs and bütter. I besought her not to. The heat has been tremendous to-day, and the dear child has been looking so pale lately," she murmured.

"Perhaps the dear girl wants employ-nent," Gordon said, with a sneer. "You reat your penniless protegee too well, er."
s. Smythe looked distressed. She r quite understood her son in this now it haunted him. Even when he was miles away, in the roar and bustle of London, this girl's lovely face was al-ways before him, stirring his passion in-to being—love, as love is understood, be-ing altogether absent from such a nat-ure as Gordon's—and waking the worst of his bad feelings into active and re-venceful anser.

of his bad feelings into active and vengeful enger.

Now, as he sat listening with ears to the long string of country sip which fell from his mother's Gordon Smythe longed with a view. desperate longing, to be Katharine's master, if only for one day, to crush her contempt and indifference under foot, to make her kneel in the dust and plead to him for mercy. His dark eyes flashed at the mental vision of triumph istressed, though, why or how should not properly have told, except hat the distress seemed vaguely singled with her interest for the young ann just gone.

"Yes, I am here, Cousin Katharine lave you no welcome for me?"

Mr. Smythe lifted himself, out of the hir, and came toward her as he space.

were simply maddening to a nature so vain and self-glorious as his. With a reckless gesture he flung his eigar into the empty grate, and drank off the remains of the brandy-and-soda; then he followed the girl to the open window that overlooked the garden that stretched at the back.

"I really don't know, Kittie," he said, putting one arm on the window-ledge and staring down at her face, that seen without her hat was even more lovely than before: "and I was going to say I don't care, but I suppose you will beyon't care, but I suppose you will beyer shocked at that, eli, my voisin?" "You know as well as I do whether it is right to say such things." Katharine returned, very coldly.

Then, as the hall door closed and Mrs. Smythe was heard entering, a sigh of relief broke from her lips, and moving away quickly, she let the mother run in to welcome her son, but not before she had caught a glimpse of the second which had come to Gordon's face, and noticed how angry his eyes had grown with, a curious, vindictive anget.

She was half-way up the narrow, old fashioned staircase to her own foom, when an impulse seemed to strike her, and she went down slowly again.

"Sarah," she said, standing in the tiny, spottess kitchen, "Sarah, what made you tell that gentleman an untruth just now?"

Sarah," she said, honest face flushed.

born of the sensation that evil was close at hand.

CHAPTER II.

Pretty, faded Mrs. Smythe was in a perfect cestasy of joy over her darling's delightful and unexpected appearance. She became perfectly radiant, and ran about hither and thither to gratify the slightest wish Gordon expressed. Katharine, from the very first, had shown the young man her undisguised disitke and contempt for the calm way in which he accepted his mother's devotion, and permitted her to slave and tire herself out as she did perpetually. The girl always contrasted him with the memory of her father, gentle, chival-ross may be refered to the supplementation of the respectful courtesy to her gentle morn ing greeting. There was not a soul in Ledstone who did not like and admire Katharine Brereton.

Katharine Brereton.

Her spirits rose as she walked quickly, getting away from the works as fast as she could, and Carlo frisked along gayly by her side. When she got cutside the old walls she stopped.

"I shall baye time to get to Fraser's "I shall have time to get to Fraser's Mine and back before breakfast," she said, consulting her watch. "The air is so lovely there."

So on she went, getting swiftly out of of the town, till she came to a rough, open common, across which a faint, soft breeze was blowing.

As Katharine walked, her mind was

As Katharine walked, her mind was lusy with the future.

"With my fifty pounds I could never starve," she determined, "and daddy always said that I had a fortune in my pen; it might have been his love that brompted him to say it, poor darling; but, after all, he knew the world, and even if things did go badly, I would rather rough it, face my troubles, than live near Gordon Smythe. I must be careful not to hurt Cousin Lucy's feelings. She must—" But here Katharine's musings were interrupted by a series of sharp. must— But here Katharine's musings were interrupted by a series of sharp, shrill barks from Carlo, who was stand-ing sniffing at something with his ears pricked and body erect.

The girl whistled to him, but finding The girl whistled to him, but finding the dog mutinous, she moved nearer.

"It is a drunken man," she thought, with a shudder, and calling louder to Carlo, she was about to turn, when her eye caught a glimpse of the face lying half-buried in the stubby grass.

The next moment she was standing beging the property down at side the sleeping form, gazing down at Mrs. Smythe looked distressed. She it in tender pity.

"So this was his arrangement, was it?" she murmured. "Poor fellow! Poor friends seldom succeeds.

"Oh! Katharine is the best and dear-boy!"

RAILWAYS

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION

$1.15 from Hamilton to Toronto and return, daily until Sept. 11th. Return limit Sept. 14th. 1909.

ANNUAL WESTERN EXCURSIONS SEPT. 16, 17, 18, 1909

28.40

CANADIAN PACIFIC Special Rates and Trains

Toronto and Return | Toronto and Return $1.05

Special Excursion Saturday, Aug. 28 Sept. 9 Saturday, Sept. 11

T., H. & B. RAILWAY WESTERN EXCURSIONS

GRAND TRUM.

ake Superior Division.

For Sault Ste. Marie, Port Arthur,

fort William and Duluth, steamers

avery Mon., Wed., and Sat. lv. Sarnia every Mon., Wed. at 3 p. m. Wed. and Sat. through to Duluth. Spec

For Sault Ste. Marie and Way Ports, Fall Sailings, Each Wed, and Sat. ly. Collingwood 1.30 b. mr. ly. Owen Sound 1145 p. Sound 11.45 p. m. Midland-Penetang Parry Sound Div.

Regular sailings each week day up o Sept. 11th., inclusive. Service dis-

H. H. Gildersleeve, Mgr. Collingwood Collingwood Traf. Mgr., Sar White Star-Dominion Royal

Mail Steamships MO?TREAL-QUEBEC-LIVERPOOL.
Laurente, triole screw; Megantle, twin screw, large 4 and most modern steamers on the St.

of Quinte, Thousand Islands, Montreal

and intermediate ports. STEAMERS TORONTO and KINGS-TON leave Toronto 3 p. m. daily for Ro-chester, Thousand Islands, running the Rapids to Montreal, Quebec and the Saguenay Riber.

For tickets apply to R. & O. local ired he is! His eyes are quive inderneath with fatigue. Poor fellow! How I wish I knew what was troubling him! Shall I wake him and ask him? He—he came to find Gordon." Katharine half stooped down, and then drew back her hand. "No," she said to herself, "I will let him sleep on, he seems worn out. When I go back I will tell Gordon where I have seen him, and perhaps rouse him to some sense of duty." haps rouse him to some sense of duty.'

With a farewell glance at the hand With a farewell grance at the hand-some face, that wore a peaceful yet wearied look, Katharine turned away resolutely. The inclination to rouse him end offer him assistance was very strong, but she resisted it. Had he not come in search of Gordon she would have done so at once, but the thought of Gor don restrained her.

don restrained her.

"My heart misgives me," she murmured, as she passed on and left the sleeper undisturbed.

This unexpected incident robbed her walk of all its pleasures. It was strange how she could not rid her mind of the feeling that this young man was in some danger, and that she (To be Continued.)

TRAVELERS' GUIDE

GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY.

liagara Falls, New York—1.05 a.m. daily, 2.27 a.m., *5.37 a.m., †9.05 a.m., *10.06 a.m., 5.35 p.m., *1.20 p.m. Guelph, Palmeraton, Strative and 17.55 a.m., 13.33 p. 17.55 a.m., 13.33 p. 18. Call, Preston, Hespeler-17.55 a.m., 13.43 p. 19. Jarvis, Port Dover, Tilisonburg, Simcoe-19.06 a.m., 13.15 a.m., 15.50 p. m., 17.60 p. m. Georgetown, Allandale, North Bay, Collingwood, etc.-710 a.m., 14.05 p.m.

Barrie, Orillia, Huntsville-12.45 a.m., 17.10 and pouses.
p.m., 45 a.m., 6.50 a.m., †7.50 a.m., *9
5 a.m., f11.15 a.m., †11.30 a.m.,
*3.40 p.m., †5.35 p.m., *7.05 p.m.,
*9.05 p.m.
Port Credit, e*c.—†6.50 a.m., †11.30 alm, 75.35 p.m.

Jam., 75.35 p.m.

Jam., 78.35 p.m.

Jam., 78.40 p.m., 15.35 p.m.

Jam., 78.40 p.m., 15.35 p.m.

Jam., 78.40 p.m., 75.35 p.m.

Jam., 78.50 p.m., 78.50 p.m., 9.65 p.m.

Jam., 70.5 p.m., 78.55 p.m., 9.65 p.m.

Jam., 70.5 p.m., 78.50 p.m., 79.50 p.m.

Jam., 70.5 p.m., 70.5 p.m., 79.50 p.m.

Jam., 70.5 p.m., 70.5 p.m., 70.50 p.m.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY.

TORONTO HAMILTON & BUFALO

RAILWAY. Hamilton

*3.05 p. m. Niagara Falls and

*8.05 p. m. Buffalo Express ...

Express ...

*5.55 a. m.

*9.55 a. m.

Niagara Falls, Buffalo a. m.

*10.05 a. m.

Niagara Falls, Buffalo a. m.

*2.00 control a. m.

*2.00 control a. m.

Arrive
Hamilton

*8.39 a. m. Detroit, Chicago and

*8.20 a. m. Detroit Chicago and

12.20 a. m. Detroit Chicago and

12.20 a. m. Paratroid and Wat
0.53 p. m. Brantford, Water

erford and St. Thomas

2.05 p. m. Detroit, Chicago, To ledo and Clucinnati Ex press

7.40 p. m. Brantford, Water
ford and west

7.40 p. m. Brantford, Water
ford and west

5.00 p. m.

Sleeping cars on Michigan Central connecting at Waterford and west

2.01 p. m.

2.02 p. m.

HAMILTON RADIAL ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

Hamilton to Burlington—6.10, *6.40, *7.10, *1.00, *

HAMILTON & DUNDAS RAILWAY

TRIC RAILWAY.

Leave H. milton = 6.30, 7.46, 8.20, $20, 10.20, 11.20 a.m., 12.20, 1.20, 2.20, 3.20, 4.20, 5.20, 6.20, 7.20, 8.20, 9.20, 10.20, 7.10, 8.40, 10.20, 11.00, a.m., 12.00, 1.00, 2.00, 3.00, 4.00, 8.00, 6.00, 7.00, 8.00, 9.00, 10.00, *11.00, p. m. *Daily, except Sunday. STEAMER TURBINIA.
In effect Monday, Aug. 30th.
Leave Hamilton-9-30 a. m. 530 p. m.
Leave Toronto-2 p. m.
8 p. m. Fuesday, Thuréday, Saturday.
10-30 p. m.—Monday, Wednesday, Friday.

STEAMERS MACASSA AND MODJESKA. m. Arrive Toronto, 10.45 a. m., 5.00 and 10.00 ni. Note-Special time table Wednesday and

THE HAMILTON FERRY CO. shore time table commencing, Sep-1st. 1909. . t Hamilton—7.20, 10.20 a. m., 2.30, 4.30, p. m. rrive Hamilton-8.30, 11.10 a. m., 3.10, 5.10, SPECIAL SUNDAY SERVICE. e Hamilton-11.00 a. m., 1.50, 2.30, 4.00,

Plumbing and Heating Contractor GEORGE C. ELLICOTT

BLACHFORD & SON

Phone 2068 119 King W.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

57 King Street West, abbished 1863. Private Morte