Letter from the Most Rev. Archbishop of New York. New York, Feb. 7, 1865. DEAR FATHER HECKER:

I have read the Prospectus which you have kindly submitted of a new Catholic Magarine, to be entitled: "The Catholic World," which it is proposed publishing in this city, under your supervision; and I am happy to state there is nothing in its whole scope and spirity which has not my hearty approval. The want of some such periodical is widely and deeply falt, and Eannot doubt that the Catholic consmunity at large will sejotoe at the prospect of having this want, if not fully, at tenst in a great measure, supplied.
