HYDRO BUSINESS IN ST. CATHARINES HAS BEEN QUADRUPLED.

Treasurer $14,835.26 for sinking fund or 10 per cent of the total debt. In addition we have invested in property and plant the depreciation fund of $39,033.36 and the surplus fund of $772,584.24 both reserved for earnings or an investment equal to a further 50.8 per cent of the total debt.
We have none but current accounts outstanding, and take advantage of the cash discount wherever it is allowed. The power accounts are paid monthly, the interest and sinking fund payments are made to the City Treasurer as they fall due, and no overhead or office expense is charged to new construction, nothing but the actual material and labor in the new work. And yet, despite a reduction in earnings during the last year we have purchased property for a large sub-station to hold until required, and have purchased the office property on St. Paul Street running through to Head St. all of which is paid for, with the exception of $3,000 which is not yet due.

The first consumers were connected in June 1914, and the growth in consumers from year to year might be of interest:

Dec. 31, 1914,	945;	1915,	1838;
1916,	2705;	1917, 3155;	1918, 3454;
1919, 3779;	Apr. 1, 1920,	3838.

The record of the six years of operation of the Hydro system in St. Catharines has been such a striking success that we believe all the citizens will be glad to get the facts before them in a short and concise statement.

Well Known Fruit Man Calls on Government

The Rocky Mountains and it had been found to work well, especially in the winter months.

Suitable in Mountains

Senator Robertson said it might be desirable, and eventually economical, to use electricity on mountain lines, but he did not believe that the time had come when the railways of Ontario could be economically electrified. At present there was a greater demand for electric power in Ontario than could be met. That condition would continue until the completion of 400,000 horsepower development at Chippawa. To electrify lines now going to be to supply the electric power to industries, and would not help railways. He had no faith in electric lines being made to pay in such communities and districts as Ontario. Highways were being perfected, and there was a growing development of hauling of freight by motor truck and of passengers by automobiles. The truck and the automobile would make the paying of rural electric lines an impossibility.

Senator Lynch-Staunton endorsed the proposal for the appointment of a Commission to report on electrification of Government lines in Ontario, and prevent municipalities carrying into execution the folly they had determined upon. The Government might well declare that it would electrify the portions of the Grand Trunk that municipalities have voted to parallel with the construction of new electric lines. The Government would do well to prevent the people going on with this reckless expenditure. Senator Ross asked if the Hydro had fixed a price on power from Chippawa.

Senator Lynch-Staunton did not know that the price had been fixed but the development was favorable for cheap power, and he had no doubt but that a contract could be made with the Hydro for power that might be required for the operation of Grand Trunk lines, and the rate would be low.

Senator Fowler said that last session he and others had warned the Government that they would be faced with such a situation as this if they persisted in their folly of purchasing the Grand Trunk. He felt that this justified the vote he and others had cast against the purchase. This seemed the proper time to say, "I told you so."

Was Called Up By Before Meeting and Police Reserves We Authorities Are No

BUFFALO, April 17—Threats of bodily injury to John D. Rockefeller, and his possible death, led to the sending of a police detail of thirty men to the Broadway Auditorium, Thursday night to guard the young millionaire and leader in the In-Church movement.

Mr. Rockefeller was in his room at the Hotel Statler preparing to go to the Auditorium, when the clerk told him he was wanted on the telephone. A man's voice asked whether it was Mr. Rockefeller speaking and then told him that he had called him to warn him against going to the Auditorium as there was to be a concerted attack made against him. The speaker said that the intention was to break up the meeting and 'get' Mr. Rockefeller. He refused.

Olympic Mar Trials Ma

Effort Being Made to S
Committee of Cham
Movement to Further door Games.

The sports committee of the Chamber of Commerce, under the chairmanship of Major H. V. Gould, got down to business last night. The needs of the sporting fraternity were discussed from various aspects. The prospects for the coming season seemed to be very promising as various members of the committee reported that a large number of teams have already been formed for lacrosse, baseball football, and indoor ball.

The main difficulty seems to be providing sufficient grounds for the many teams to play their regular games and for practice work. The first step appeared to be the obtaining of definite information as to the number of teams that were likely to take part in each line of sport so that something definite might be done in allotting the available grounds to these teams so that each would have a fair division of time and be able to play their regular games with a maximum amount of time for practice. The following members of the committee were appointed to get information on the number of teams which would be in the field this summer:
Lacroisse, F. J. Mellwain, Baseball, Harry Carmichael, Football, Peter Mitchell, Indoor Ball, H. Foster, Tennis, T. F. Jackson.

Any of the above mentioned gentlemen will be very glad to receive information from any organization which purposes the forming of a team and would like to have the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce in arranging for playgrounds.
A general committee composed of Messrs. H. L. Cummings, T. F. Jackson, and Fred J. Graves was appointed to get all possible information
