IMPORTANT.

In order to suit the dull times I am cutting down prices in all lines of fabric now held in stock, and purpose to continue to do so until the market becomes more stable and would have ruined all persons whose accounts are overdue and unpaid that unless they are paid off at once, the same will be held in court for collection, without further notice.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

the pallium taken from the body of blessed Peter."

Many curious regulations regarding the pallium are to be met with in liturgical writers and in the scriptural canons called the "Magnificat" or canons of the Blessed Virgin Mary, in praise to God for the mighty things done for her. Thus she sing inspired by the Holy Ghost: "My soul doth magnify that Lord. And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. Because he that is Almighty hath done great things for me, and holy is His name" etc. (Luke 1.)

If the Jew then who lived under the law of Moses praised Jehovah by song and psalmody for the many favors conferred upon him and his fathers, why not the Christians living under the law of Christ do as much?

May, do more; for no work, no favor done in behalf of sinful man ever equal the incarnation of Jesus Christ, by which grace and salvation were given to us.

The justification and sanctification of one soul by the grace of Jesus Christ, acquired by His blood, is a greater work than the creation of ten thousand worlds.

Why, then, should not music and song be employed in the divine service of God, and His praises sung His mercies forever?

If David

did not sing before the Ark, why should not the Christian chant his song of praise before Jesus Christ who continually offers Himself upon our altars as a victim of propitiation for our sins?

In the Temple of Solomon, where there was nothing sacred except the Ark, there were singers and musicians to praise the Lord, why should not those also be found in the Christian Church where resides the

Jesus Christ? Let us chant His praises with reverence and love, for His service is worth
