CONVENT DE NOTRE DAME.

The closing exercises of the Notre Dame Convent were held in the spacious hall of the convent at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. The attendance of visitors was large. Among those present were His Lordship Bishop McDonald and several of the clergy of the diocese, His Honor Lieutenant Governor Howland Professor Anderson, Prof. Caven, U. S. Consul Kline, and other leading citizens. The commencement exercises of the convent and school days of a high order and those held this year were no exception to the rule. Business grace, movement and precision characterized the pupils; and correctness and careful training were clearly apparent whether the students rendered dramatic pieces or vocal or instrumental music.

The programme was a lengthy one and well carried out. The drama "The Garden of the God" was quite an interesting one. It portrayed the history of P. E. Island from the time of its discovery to the present. The participants in it exhibited dramatic ability of a very high order. The following were the dramatic persons:

Prologue by Miss G. Bolger, Miss Bradbury, F. Blake, A. Trahan and G. McLeod.

PART I.
Princess, Queen of the Island..... Miss C. Kelly.

Asia..... Miss B. Oliver.

Africa..... Miss N. McDonald.

England..... Miss H. Anderson.

Scotland..... Miss G. Gillis.

Ireland..... Miss A. Roach.

PART IV.
Prosperity..... Miss M. Oliver.

Education..... Miss N. McDonald.

Baldness..... Miss E. Sullivan.

The play "Lost among the Fairies" by the small children was quite captivating and reflected much credit on those who presented it. The foundation of the word "Thanks" in various characters quite artistic and pretty. The vocal and instrumental music was of high order and exquisitely rendered. Prizes were given to the successful students whose names appear below. The graduating medals were presented to Miss Bertha Coonan and Miss E. Sullivan. Miss Coonan delivered the valedictory address which was well prepared and well rendered. After the reading of the valedictory brief addresses were made by His Lordship Bishop McDonald and Lieut. Governor Howland. God save the Queen was then sung, after which the audience dispersed.
