The Result of the Contest on Wednesday.

Some of the Boys think the Skating Rink is.

The event of Wednesday with the young men of the town, was the hour-and-ahalf's "go-as-you-please" race, which began precisely at 8.25 p.m. in the Skating Rink. At that time the judges, Messrs. C. R. Dunsford, Charlie Nairn and D. C. Strachan were at their appointed place, and the contest ints, eager for the race, toed the "scratch." The limited width 20 of the track did not admit of the nine participants standing side by side, but this fact was not deemed of any conse-

16 quence by the "peds." 16 "Are you all ready," said Strachan, and on an affirmative being returned by the 13 fleet-footed ones, the word "Go," was

Off they started, bunching to the front and each striving for a good place. Round the track and round went the contestants, and for five minutes or so the relative positions obtained at the start seemed to be but little interfered with. Then they commenced to string out, with Watson, Gooding, Williams, Rutson and Matheson favorites, and the others bringing up the rear. But the knowing ones knew the pace could not last, and time and again the remark was made, "They'll come down a peg before the end of the hour-and-a-half."

Half an hour passed; three-quarters— and then the stock of the younger lads, McCallum and McKay, began tolookup. At the end of an hour Watson left the FARM Sold.—At Currie's auction mart
