1886. Harper's Bazar.

HARPER'S BAZAR is the only paper in the world that combines the choicest literature and the finest art illustrations with the latest fashions and metheds of household adornment. Its weekly illustrations and descriptions of the newest Paris and New York styles, with-its useful pattern-sheet supplements and cut patterns, by enabling ladies to be their own dresmakers, save many times the cost of subscription. Its papers on cooking, the management of servants, and housekeeping in its various details are eminently practical. Much attention is given to the interesting topic of social etiquette, and its illustrations of art needle-werk are acknowledged to be unequalled. Its literary merit is of the highest excellence, and it e unique character of its humorous nietures has won for it the name of the American Panel.
