THE WEST HURON CANDIDATURE.

What Our Exchanges Have to Say on the Bubject.

From the Mitchell Recorder.

It was announced by the Globe on Wednesday that the Provincial Treasurer, Hon. A. M. Ross, will not offer for re-election in West Huron at the coming election. It has been understood for some time that Mr Ross wished to a brazen attempt to interfere with the firm of which he is a member being retire from public life. There is some talk that Mr D. McGillicuppy, of the Goderich SIGNAL, may be the choice of the West Huron Liberals as Mr Ross'

D. McGillicuppy, editor of THE SIGNAL, is spoken of as a possible successor.

From the Brussels Post.

It is stated, with a large degree of cercial Treasurer, will retire from the political arena and that a Convention will be fication. The "heeler" is only a "heeler" Mr J. A. Morton, of Wingham. The ing taken a prominent part in elections for the past fifteen or eighteen years. He would fill a seat in the Local Legis lature with as much ability as the most of our M.P.P.'s.

From the Toronto Telegram.

The Hon. A. M. Ross has informed bis friends in West Huron that he will not be a candidate at the forthcoming dections. A Liberal convention will be a candidate at the forthcoming decision. A Liberal convention will be led on the 5th prox. to nominate his increasor. The choice will probable as the country towns along the following very desirable farm, consisting of the convention, and then be governed by the intensity of Goderich, as meminent barrister, who has won a rominent barrister, who has heretofore the Huron count in the Huron count i held early in May in West Huron to sel-
