South African Veteran Suicides.

Ottawa, July 26.—Harold (Hal) Walters, aged 45, well known in athletic circles, as a member of the old Rough Riders' football team, committed suicide on Saturday afternoon in the Bodega Hotel, shooting himself through the temple in full view of a number of persons in the barroom.

Walters fired two shots, the first passing through his hat and not injuring him. He then deliberately pressed the .38-calibre revolver against his right temple and discharged the weapon.

Walters was a veteran of the South African war and a former member of the local police force. Recently he has been attached to the staff of the Dominion Geological Survey.

Brighter Aspect on Whaling Voyage

The whaling voyage looks a great deal more promising than it did a fortnight ago when only twenty-four whales were accounted for, landed by the entire fleet of five whalers. The "Puma" and "Lynx" have been signally successful during the latter part of July. They are operating around Placentia and to date have captured twenty whales each, whilst the Hump which is now in port for a supply of coal has seven to her credit, and the Cabot, at Snook's Arm, has ten fish landed. There is no word from the Cachetot, though it is expected she is doing well.

DISTINGUISHED FORESTER COMING.—Mr. Mathieson, Supreme Treasurer of the Independent Order of Foresters, will visit the city during the coming week, and is expected to arrive by the S.S. Morwenna. The local branch of the Order will prepare a reception for him.

Gun-Running RESULTS in BLOODSHED

Soldiers Fire on Nationalist Crowd, Four are Dead, Many Wounded.

Special to Evening Telegram. DUBLIN, To-day.

Three men and one woman are dead, and more than sixty persons are in hospital, wounded, as the result of a battalion of the King's Own Scottish Borderers firing into a mob in the streets of Dublin yesterday afternoon. Seven of the wounded are expected to succumb to their injuries.

The affair is the result of a gun-running exploit of the Nationalist Volunteers, who were being aided by a mob composed largely of youths and women. The wounded in hospital include three women and a boy of ten years. A consignment of rifles said to number 10,000, was landed Saturday night at Howth, nine miles from Dublin. The vessel in which the arms were brought to Howth was a private yacht. The Nationalist Volunteers cut the telegraph lines and stopped travel in Dublin roads.

According to reports most of the rifles with 70,000 rounds of ammunition, were being taken away in motor cars. The King's own Scottish Borderers were ordered to capture the arms this afternoon when the authorities heard the Volunteers were bringing them to the city. The soldiers encountered a detachment of Volunteers at Clonmel Bridge, and an outbreak resulted, but no shooting followed. However, great crowds soon collected and followed the troops, jeering them and cheering for John Redmond and Home Rule.

Finally, the mob began throwing bottles and stones, and several of the soldiers were injured. The battalion then replied to the attack of the mob with a scattered fusillade. In an instant, the street was covered with wounded, while terrified men, women and children ran in all directions. St. Jurez hospital is situated only 200 yards from the scene of the affray, and the wounded were quickly taken there. Four died within two hours. The soldiers and police seized 100 rifles from the Volunteers. Excited crowds filled the streets of Dublin during the night, some men carrying rifles. The Borderers are confined to barracks to prevent the people from attacking them. A street car, in which a soldier was riding, was attacked, but the soldier escaped the mob. Further rioting is feared.

The soldiers fired, used their bayonets freely, inflicting many cuts. Then they had a running fight with volunteers and rapidly growing mob through the streets to their barracks. A number of policemen were suspended for refusing to try to disarm the volunteers after the troops had fired into the crowd. The angry populace in a spirit of revenge attacked individual soldiers and beat them brutally. The Lord Mayor has issued a strong letter of protest in which he declares that the troops were ordered out without permission having been asked of the Lord Mayor and he demands that the responsibility shall be fixed for calling out of the soldiers and for supplying them with ball cartridges. He adds: "Dublin and Ireland look with confidence to John Redmond and his colleagues to bring to justice those responsible for this shocking outrage. There must no longer be one law for a section of Ulster people and another law for the remainder of the Irish people." Nationalists are indignant over the affair because they say the troops are against the Nationalists and never interfere with Orangemen. The Daily News calls the affair a massacre and demands a rigid investigation of the conduct of its soldiers. It lays the responsibility upon the weakness of the Government which allowed the organization of the Ulster Volunteers and this could not prohibit Nationalists from doing the same.

Special to Evening Telegram. HAMMONDSPORT, To-day.

The over sea flight of the America is postponed till October. It was seen on Saturday that even working day and night, the "America" could not be made ready to ship to Newfoundland on August 1st, as had been planned. In two flights made on Saturday the boat suffered a mishap.

In the morning part of the copper covering of one of the propellers flew off and tore a slice from one wing. The propellers were removed and taken to the factory where they were repaired. In the night flight a water pipe leading to the carburettor loosened from vibration. In this flight, but two motors were used, and the force of air turned the traction screw attached to the third motor.

WIRE WOUNDS.

My mare, a very valuable one, was badly bruised and cut by being caught in a wire fence. Some of the wounds would not heal, although I tried many different medicines. Dr. Bell advised me to use MINARD'S LINIMENT, diluted at first, then stronger as the sores began to look better, until after three weeks, the sores have healed, and best of all, the hair is growing well, and is NOT WHITE as is most always the case in horse wounds.

The Benjamine boy, who is studying at Bishop Field College, was present. Mr. Stewart expressed the hope that others would follow in his steps and offer themselves for missionary work in the Arctic.
