"The Green Lantern."

City's Newest Cafe Opened To-day. Mr. G. W. R. Hierlby is the Owner. "The Green Lantern," the city's newest cafe, opened to-day. Occupying the store on Theatre Hill, just above the Majestic Theatre, formerly occupied by the Fleischman Yeast Co., Mr. G. W. R. Hierlby, the proprietor, judged well when he selected the spot, for by its doors some thousands of people nightly pass. This morning a Telegram reporter was shown through by Mr. Hierlby and the impression gained was certainly a favorable one. All the ideas gathered by the owner since he purchased and ran the Oyster Bay Parlour, New Gower Street, are incorporated in "The Green Lantern," and the place is a very model of comfort, efficiency and service. Green electric lanterns, situated at various points, will shed a green, soothing, eerie light on the cafe and an air of novelty will at night pervade. A seating capacity for some eighty persons will prevent any from leaving on that score. In the rear of the store are two other rooms where are situated tables and chairs, everything being sumptuously clean and neat. At the back of the rooms are the kitchen and ice-cream plant, which can turn out 250 gallons a day. Mr. Hierlby will attend personally to "The Green Lantern," while the Oyster Bay Parlours will be managed by Mr. Pafford.

Brilliant red heels are seen on black slippers—the slippers to be worn with a black chantilly lace gown.
