

Important Notice to the GROCERY TRADE

I am informed that the traveller for a Canadian House manufacturing Flavoring Essences said to be non-alcoholic is representing to the trade that after September 1st all Flavoring Essences containing any percentage of alcohol will be prohibited from being sold.

I have personally called upon Inspector General Hutchings and have been definitely informed by him that

Pure Gold Extracts

(any Flavors) may be imported and sold by the legitimate Grocery trade for legitimate purposes ON AND AFTER SEPTEMBER 1ST.

Beware of the salesman who tells you anything in order to make a sale.

Fashions and Fads.

Fans of single ostrich feathers in groups of three to seven are very popular.

Cunning dolman wraps have been designed for dappers, and are much in favor.

The long, tight sleeve and the haring three-quarter sleeve are equally popular.

A black velvet dress is finished at neck and cuffs with a fold of white aborga cloth.

Serge street dresses are trimmed with leather motifs studded with gay colored beads.

Through Canadian Eyes

(By J. R. Smallwood, Halifax Herald.)
Hot Weather!

Halifax, in common with all Eastern Canada, has been "enjoying" hot weather during the past three days. On Sunday it was above 80 in the shade; on Monday it was 83 in the shade, and yesterday it was 86. Most people who were not compelled to be at work spent their time in trying to keep cool, and every resort was filled. Silver Sands, Cow Bay, was dotted thickly with bathers, while on North West Arm hundreds enjoyed a cool breeze, canoeing.

Building New Hotel.

Halifax is shortly to have another new hotel—this time a million and a half dollar one. At present there are several hotels—the Halifax, Queen, Carleton, Prince George and others. The fact that another is deemed necessary is eloquent of the growing prosperity of this city. In Halifax one beholds an inspiring example for St. John's. St. John's should have a tourist traffic twenty times as great as that of Halifax, and would have, were it not for the lack of sufficient accommodation. If there is one thing that an American or a Canadian tourist or traveller demands it is good hotel accommodation, and it is a waste of time to expect him to go where that accommodation is not.

$1,000,000 For Paving.

The city of Halifax at the beginning of this year allocated $1,000,000 to be spent in paving streets. Last year an enormous sum was expended and next year another will be spent. By then practically every street in Halifax will have been paved. The paving is of asphalt, with brick paving for the reception of street car rails. The street car line was extended several miles this summer, and it is now proposed to extend it some more.

Trying to Force New Election.

In Manitoba the political situation is a rather unique one. The recent election there gave the government a bare majority, and now it is having the time of its life trying to keep itself a government. In opposition are Laborites, Farmers and Independents. The latter are combining to make things hot for the government and thereby force another election, in which case the Laborites and Farmers would combine and go to the country together. That they would sweep everything before them seems, from all indications, to be likely. The Winnipeg Free Press, which is not a Labor nor a Farmer paper, admits the fact. That is significant. Still, one can never tell what may happen.

An Extraordinary Distinction.

Four men in the world to-day, besides the native ones, are chiefs of the six-Indian tribe of Indians at Brantford, Ontario. They are: the King, the Governor General of Canada, the Prince of Wales and a Labor Mayor! He is Mayor M. McBride, of Brantford, where he is head of the City Council, and a member of the Ontario Legislature. He was made a chief by the Iroquois Indians as a mark of their appreciation of a service which he had rendered them. He went through the same ceremony as the Prince did on his recent tour of Canada. Mayor McBride was in Halifax during the late election, and helped the Independent Labor Party in its campaign. The writer met him there, and heard from himself the story of the chieftanship.

Nova Scotia's Apple Crop.

The Annapolis Valley apple crop this year will be over 1,000,000 barrels. Though this will be 600,000 barrels below last year's bumper yield, experts say that the quality will be unusually excellent; some go as far as to say that the quality will make up in value for the loss in quantity. There is a big crop of small fruits over all Canada. In New Brunswick, however, the apple crop is only about 50 per cent. of last year's, and there is no advantage in quality to offset the loss in quantity.

Hit It, Bill!

Soldier, golfer, footballer, and law-tennis champion, Mr. J. C. Parke, who created a sensation by beating the American tennis champion at Wimbledon, is a remarkable type of the all-round athlete. Thirty-nine years of age, he can give many years and a beating to most of his opponents.

Mr. Parke tells an amusing story of two soldiers who were playing golf. The first man teed up and made a mighty swipe, but failed to move the ball. Time after time he tried and missed. His pal could stand it no longer.

"For Heaven's sake, hit it, Bill!" he cried. "We've only got four days' leave!"

Archbishop Was Hurried Into London in Darkness.

London, August 10. — (Canadian Press)—Archbishop Daniel J. Mannix, of Australia, who was landed yesterday at Penzance by a British destroyer, which had taken him from aboard the White Star liner Baltic, off the Irish coast, arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning.

There were only a few reporters and a handful of priests present to greet the Archbishop, but a heavy police guard was maintained about the station.

There were no untoward incidents. A less impressive welcome for Archbishop Mannix could hardly have been staged than that which greeted him when he arrived at Haddington station.

Only the late editions of last night's newspapers published the fact that he had landed at Penzance and was coming to this city.

Therefore only a few knew that he was to arrive at an early hour to-day. Even the priests were not allowed to greet the Archbishop until he had passed the barriers into the station proper. Here the police had some difficulty in handling even such a small crowd, as nearly every one insisted on kneeling before the Archbishop and kissing his hand.

Efforts of those who took Archbishop Mannix from the station to evade the public seemed to lend strength to statements of Irishmen that the Australian prelate will attempt to go to Ireland, notwithstanding the government's mandate that he shall not.

He was first led to the subway platform and then suddenly hurried into an automobile into which his luggage had been placed. He was driven to the home of a priest in the suburbs.

Archbishop Mannix declined to say whether he had any plans for the immediate future, and would not disclose what he intended to do during his stay in England.
