the U. S. Forces. Louisville, Ky., My 29. - Information from Jackson says that several of the mountain desperadoes have been riding night and day since White and Jett were lodged in jail here, and urging the mountaineers to rescue their comrades.

The military authorities here have been able to secure no further intelligence from the mountains It has been decided to keep an outpost on all roads and mountain passes, not only at night, but during the day. This probably will result in a call for more troops, Jackson newspaper correspondents are under military regulation and are not allowed to send stories out after dark.
