The employees of the London Drug Company, with whom Mr. Thomas H. Heard, the new superintendent at Victoria Hospital, has worked for many years, on Saturday afternoon presented to him a beautiful diamond pin, and the following address, which was signed by the whole staff:

Mr. Thomas H. Heard,—We, the undersigned employees of the London Drug Company, availing ourselves of the occasion furnished by your departure from among us, desire to express our hearty congratulations on your appointment as superintendent of Victoria Hospital. Though loth to see severed the ties that have bound us together so long, we cannot but recognize that, so far as human foresight can perceive, the change will be to your advantage, though to our loss, and if unfeeling tact and never-ceasing courtesy and all those nameless little qualities of manner which cause the welfare of life to run smoothly are an assurance against even the slightest degree of failure, then we cannot but prognosticate an entire success for your new position, and to accept the accompanying gift as a slight token of our esteem and good wishes.

CLYDE FITCH'S GREAT SUCCESS, "LOVERS' LANE," after record-breaking runs of five months in New York city, and all summer in Chicago, is brought by Wm. Brady to the New Grand next Thursday evening, with a special matinee at 2:30 o'clock. The scenes are laid in a small New England town, but it is not a farm-like play like "Way Down East," which it has already rivaled in favor and popularity. The love-making of the village clergyman and a pupil from the New York Art League; the childish troubles of "Sinner's Lane" and the charming, sympathetic, broader humor of the village bachelors and social purists; the good-natured cynicism of the opera house manager, who posts his own bills; the quaint love-making of an old couple of 50, and the crusade of the Social Purity Brigade, are all incidents blended into a play full of local color and tremendous human interest. In "Lovers' Lane" the dramatist has admirably revealed the real humor and poetry of small town life. The original company is to be seen here, including Millie James as Simplicity Johnson.

"THE VILLAGE PARSON." "The Village Parson," which comes to the New Grand next Friday evening, is a drama strong in human interest. The play is staged in five acts, and is said by all who have witnessed it to be a worthy and fitting companion play to W. E. Nauckville's immense success, "Human Hearts." A thoroughly successful performance is promised.
