Harbor Beach, Mich., July 23.-The steamer Waverly was sunk in a collision with the steamer Turret Court five miles below Harbor Beach early yesterday. The crew of the Waverly escaped to the schooner Crosthwaite. which the steamer had in tow, and all were saved. Both steamers bound up Lake Huron, and both were towing barges. It is the wheel chains of the Turret Court parted when the vessels were close together, and before anything could be done, the Turret Court had crashed into the Waverly. The lost steamer belonged to the Gilchrist fleet of Cleveland, and was one of the early type of merchandise carriers on the great lakes. She was built in 1874. She caried about 3,-000 tons, and was coal laden when she went down. The Turret Court was brought to

tion and is owned in Canada. DIAMOND SMUGGLING
