DR. BANKS ON THE MODERN BABYLONIA

A Peculiarly Interesting Address in the Auditorium Last Night.

"Modern Babylon" was the subject of Dr. Banks' lecture at the Auditorium last night, that had a particular interest in view of the occurrences that have been taking place lately in the eastern world. The lecture was illustrated with a large number of very fine views, that gave an increased understanding of the country.

Dr. Banks remarked that by far the larger part of Arabia had never been visited by a white man, and especially this was of the central part, which is rather severely on the head, by stating that in many places it is as hard as a board. It is the mere fact of the lack of water that makes this land a desert. In some parts, however, there is sand, which lies in great drifts, sometimes rising to the height of five or six hundred feet. The air is fresh and clear, and traveling in this country is a pleasure, unless a storm arises to hurl the sand like snow, and form drifts in other places. Then traveling becomes extremely dangerous. If the traveler lies down he will soon be buried alive. Beautiful views were shown of the scenery along some of the inland rivers that at rare intervals break the desert. The favorite mode of travel is by horses. Horses are prized highly there, indeed, more even than the members of a man's family. They are beautiful animals, and are worth as much as $10,000 in some instances. For long distances the desert camels are used. These animals can make 15 or 20 miles an hour over the desert, and can stand 15 or 16 hours without drink. River travel is by boats, built on rafts of goatskins and logs.

There are many different tribes, some of them living in black colored tents on the borders of the desert.
Others live in caves and reed huts, or others in mud houses one story high, and with flat roofs, which are used for sleeping apartments. Camel raising and date culture are the two chief industries of the people, and Dr. Banks gave a very interesting and instructive exposition of these trades, illustrating his remarks with numerous views.

The sacred cities were held distinctly sacred, and none but the orthodox dare enter them. For a European to venture within their walls was to court almost instant death.

The course of lectures will continue every evening this week excepting Saturday.

HILL ST. METHODISTS' ANNIVERSARY SUPPER

Splendid Entertainment Carried Out Last Night—Large Number Present.

Last evening the anniversary supper of the Hill Street Methodist Church was held in the schoolroom, a large number of members and their friends being present. The pastor, Rev. Richard Redmond, presided, and after the repart, opened a very entertaining programme, which was as follows:

Chorus, "Clergy and choir, under the direction of Mr. Woodward; invocation, by Mr. Redmond; solo, Miss Edna Calhoun; solo, Miss Dowling; piano solo, Miss Stevens; reading, Miss Edith Long; solo, Mr. Woodward;

Mrs. Proven; reading, Mrs. C. W.
Barrows; solo, Roland Ruse; solo, Mr.
Dowling; violin solo, Miss Rawson; reading, Miss Edith Long; reading, Mrs. C. W. Barrows; solo, Roland Ruse.

The anniversary services were held on Sunday. Rev. Mr. Thomas, Brig-den, preached at both services, which were very well attended.

Nearly $200 was realized from the Sunday collection and last evening's concert.

STAFF CHANGES AT VICTORIA HOSPITAL

Dr. Fred Jeffery Has Been Appointed Chief Surgeon—Dr. Gillespie Leaves.

A number of changes are reported in the staff of house surgeons at Victoria Hospital.

As a result of Dr. Roy Holmes leaving for Port Arthur, where he has accepted a position with the Grand Trunk Pacific, Dr. Fred Jeffery has been appointed chief.

Dr. Gillespie leaves at once for Jackson, Mich., to be house surgeon in the hospital there, and Dr. Jeffery, who has been in Jackson for some weeks, has returned. Dr. N. George has also been appointed to the staff.

FATHER HURRIED TO HIS DYING DAUGHTER

Mr. S. H. Pavey's Heroic Act—Was in Hospital When Notified of Illness.

Mr. S. H. Pavey, who has been in Victoria Hospital for some weeks with a broken ankle, was notified yesterday that his daughter, Dorothy, was ill.

Mr. Pavey's fracture is not yet properly set and he was unable to get up. He was hurried to St. Thomas in an automobile, arriving there after suffering considerable pain, but with no damage to the broken ankle. He is ill in St.
Thomas, as his daughter's illness is very serious.

SEVENTH REGIMENT MEN WILL BE PAID

Twenty-Five Cents for Each Drill Will Be Handed Over to the Boys in Future.

After last night's drill the officers of the Seventh Regiment held a meeting, at which they decided to revive the former method of paying the men for drills. This custom was in vogue some years ago, and tended greatly to increase the numerical strength of the regiment. The sum was 25 cents a week, and as there are 24 drills a year, this would amount to $6 for the season.
The men are very much pleased at the move, and hope the arrangements are final. Of late this drill money has gone towards defraying expenses of the regiment for holiday trips.

QUARTERLY RALLY OF BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE

Was Held Last Night in the Talbot Street Baptist Church.

The Baptist Young People's Union of the city held their quarterly rally last night at the Talbot Street Baptist Church. Rev. W. E. Mathers, of the William Street Baptist Church, Chatham, was the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Mathers' subject was "Christian Service, a Motto, a Motive and a Method."

"The influence of a motive has been profoundly marked in all human history," said the speaker, "and the need of Christian life is to have a motive that will be a power in that life to transform it."

"A motive is a motto in itself, and with our motto we must be like Cromwell's Ironsides, who knew what they fought for and loved that they knew."
"The method," said Mr. Mathers, "might be summed up in Paul's words, 'will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls.'"

It is this personal touch and method that is effective in all lives. The personal method is the one effective method of Christian service, and involves the investment of the best we have of personality, possession and powers.

ASKIN ST. METHODIST EPWORTH OFFICERS

Rev. W. K. Birks Paid a High Compliment to Them at Meeting Last Night.

Askin Street Epworth League held their annual meeting and election of officers last night. Rev. A. K. Birks, the pastor, was in the chair, after hearing the annual reports from the various departments, every one of which was an indication that the Epworth League of Askin Street Methodist Church, is in a good healthy condition. Mr. Birks said that of the many years of his ministry, and after presiding at similar meetings, this was the first that had reached the acme of perfection in the matter of organization, which speaks volumes for the retiring officers.

Mr. J. F. Maine was again elected year he has filled that office.

Second Vice-President—Miss Ger-

WORKMAN HAD A VERY NARROW ESCAPE

Duncan Paul's Sleeve Caught in a Shafting at the Dennis Works.

At the Dennis wire and iron works yesterday, Duncan Paul, an employee, had a narrow escape from serious injury. He was oiling the shafting, when his clothes suddenly got entangled in one of the rapidly revolving pulley, which tore the garments off his body. Mr. Paul seized a hanger, and in this manner prevented himself from going around with the pulley, which would have meant death. Mr.
Gillett quickly shut off the power, and Paul was extricated from his perilous position. He was badly shaken up and suffered some slight injuries. He will be at work in a day or two.
