Upper House Unionist Leaders a Last Realize the Seriousness

of Their Position.

London, May 1. - The House of chastened assembly when on Thursday afternoon it passed all the stages of Chancellor Lloyd George's hated budget after three hours of listless discussion. The contrast between the aspect of the peers on Thursday and when, before the general election, they were throwing out the same budget with every mark of contempt, was profoundly impressive. The peers realize, however much they has left them in a perilous predica-ment.
