ON LAKE WARSHIPS

A Treaty To Replace the Rush-Baget Understanding.

Ottawa, July 27. — In the Commons today, in answer to a question by Mr. Claude Macdonell, of Toronto, Sir Wiffrid Laurier stated that the Government had now under consideration the desirability of negotiating a treaty with the United States which would secure a permanent agreement with regard to the limitations of armaments and warships on the great lakes, thus replacing the Rush-Bagot convention of nearly a century ago, and which is terminable on six months notice by either country. Sir Wiffrid stated that the Canadian Government had always observed the provisions of this convention.
