ILLNESS PREVENTS PREMIER'S RETURN

Plebiscite Questions Not To Be Given Out Before

Torono, Sept. 10 .- Word was reeived at the parliament buildings at noon today that the condition of Premier Ferguson would prevent his return to the city until Friday evening. The premier is suffering with an exceedingly heavy cold contracted while motoring to his home Kemptville.

The illness of the premier prevent the plebiscite questions eing made public before Friday or Saturday. It is stated that the questions are now ready but must await the return of the premier who will hand them to the press. As far as can be ascertained only two ques ions will be printed on the ballot

Judge Gives Life Sentence and Would Refuse Release Privileges.

Associated Press Despatch. Chicago, Sept. 10. - Youth alone saved Nathan Leopold, Jr., 19, and Richard Loeb, 18, from death on the gallows for the kidnapping and murder last May of 14-year-old Robert Franks. Instead, Judge John R. Caverly, retiring chief justice of the criminal court of Cook County, sentenced the two young intellectuals to life imprisonment on the murder charge, and to terms of 99 years' imprisonment for the kidnapping. Under the latter, it was stated, they annot be released on parole until they have served more than 37 years in the Joliet penitentiary. The life term alone would have permitted such release after about 20 years.
But the court urged that this priv lege be never extended to the confessed doers of what he called "an bhorrent crime.

"More than that, it seems to be in accordance with the precedents hitherto observed in this state. The records of Illinois show only two cases of minors who were put to death by legal process—to which number this court does not feel inclined to make an addition." The judicial words recalled the eloquence of Clarence S. Darrow, who, in his closing plea for the boys, denounced hangings as barbaric, especially in the case of the young, and urged that

Immigration Authorities State They Must Qualify the Same As Other Immigrants.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Sept. 10.-Jewish refugees rom Russia seeking entry into Canada will be subject to the same restrictions as now apply under the Preston, Sept. 10. — A strange coincidence came to light recently on the farm of Dr. Owen Reist. law to all immigrants, namely that they must qualify as agricultural workers and give reasonable assurance that they intend to remain in the rural districts of Canada.

This was the dictum of the minister of immigration, Hon. J. A. Robb, who tonight received a delegation of steamship men which asked for a ruling on the status under the Canadian immigration law of Hebrew itizens of Russia, now resident citizens of Russia, now resident in Russia or the Near East. Many of these, it is understood, sought entry into Canada, but were unable to qualify as agricultural workers. It is understood that the immigration department a year ago made al-lowance for a number of Jewish reflowance for a lumber of several lowance for a lumber of several lumber of the immigration law. A tentative limit was set to the number to be admitted, but the actual number who ave gained admittance as agricul-ural workers falls short of the quota et for the twelve month period.

In declining to enlarge the field of immigration in this class, it is presumed that the immigration department has in mind the pledges given to the United States government that everything will be done at Canadian ports to prevent the immigration of Europeans who seek to use The crowds that thronged to the Western Fair yesterday were treated a means of evading the restrictions to a thrill that was not given a place of that country's immigration law.

He added that the words Even as Judge Caverly declined to break precedent by sentencing the boys to hang, so he declined to make precedent by ruling definitely on the big legal technicality of the case, whether a degree of mental sickness short of legal insanity might be linked with moral turpitude as a mitigating circumstance. All through the six weeks of the hearing this was the technical background, with the state's attorney trying to switch the proceedings into an insanity hearing, and the defence insisting that the Honest merchants were asked to —looking around! Perhaps I had better stop just here, before I remember too many things that I saw-and tell you about the new Aquascutum coats.

In the first place-this is going to be a sad blow to the men of the family. They're going to be robbed of a privilege, unduly exercised for the past few years. They've been able to visit the Men's Shop and select an Aquascutum.

They were able to exhibit the purchase to admiring wives and daughters—pointing out its waterproof and weatherproof qualities-its smart lines-its beautiful tailor-

And then, as a crowning proof of qualitythey could point to its two royal crests, which mean "By Appointment" to His Majesty and to the Prince of Wales.

But to get to the point. Here is the pleasurable announcement. Aquascutum coats have arrived for the wives and daughters as well, and they're already on exhibition at the Fair Grounds. When you mount the Balcony in the Crystal Palace-look at the Men's Shop window. Just picture yourself (as I did) in that dashing coat with the faint green plaid—and finish off your mental portrait with that bright orange hat! When you do-you'll find the combination just every bit as irresistible as I've been finding the call to Judith the Fair Grounds.
