JUNIORS BEAT RAMBLERS

Special to The Advertiser. Woodstock, July 10 .- The Woodstock Juniors humbled the league-leading Ramblers in a City League fixture, winning by 10 to 4. Lefty Bond attempted a come-back, and occupied the mound for the Ramblers. Dougherty pitched a steady game for the juniors, and was given pretty fair support. Pascoe and Bond hit homers, while Lamb had three safeties out of four times up. The fielding feature was supplied by Jimmy Smith, who ran to the benches for a long foul. for a long foul. Little Lessons In Golf Good Form of Willard and His Confidence Are Factors.

last summer. It is of significative to note that the fight on New York has started a little earlier than in the two preceding years. It begy a last year and the year preceding in August. The Cincinnati club has been more successful than usual against New York this year, due largely, to the fine pitching of Luque, the Cuban. On the other hand, Cincinnati has been easy meat for Pittsburg. Luque could always give the Giants a tussle, a fact very well known in the councils of the world's champions, who were making an exceedingly diplomatic proposition when they offered to trade Jess Barnes to the Reds in exchange for Luque. There have been other trades like it in baseball, the club proposing the trade not only securing a very good player, but also removing from its path one of its most difficult stumbling blocks to previous championstumbling blocks to previous champion-

Sortie.

Since Jess Barnes left the Giants he has been pitching better ball and his old club is no more popular with him than it is with Fred Toney. Mathewson the top of the C. A. A. ladder last night by Marconis, who edged out a 7 to 6 victory.

The two teams went into the seventh frame all knotted up and both staged rallies, St. Martins hanging up a 3-run lead for the Marconis to shoot at. They brought it down with a 4-run shot.

The score:

ARR H. H. P. O. A. E. Martins by the same proportion is simply ridiculous, but it usually happens when the tail of the kite is too light for the head. If Cincinnati could defeat the Giants by the same proportion than could be the same proportion.

burgs come through and smother the champions in at least two-thirds of their games.

In four games played between the Boston and Cleveland Clubs this season a total of 114 hits were made, there were 25 doubles. 8 triples and 3 home runs in the lot. If as many home runs had been made proportionately as ingles were made, there would have been an epidemic. Home runs are declining.
