Poor Fide is no More The tram car is responsible for another young, innocent life; a harmless, frolicsome dog was successfully electrocuted, near the Rice Mills, yesterday afternoon.

False Pretences Herbert Morgan was charged with obtaining the sum of $12 under false pretences, in yesterday's Police Court. The case was remanded, on request of the defendant, who was released upon bail.

A Fowl Offence. John Norwood was cruel to his hens; The police kept him out of suspens. 'Twas a fowl offens;
There was no defens;
And a five was the total expens

T. J. Jackman, formerly a hotel manager in Vancouver, has purchased the hotel business at the Willows, and will at once assume possession. Under Mr. Jackman's management, this suburban hotel will, no death, the suburban hotel will, no generally. The Willows.

doubt, become very popular. Thanksgiving in the Churches.

On Thanksgiving Day, special services were held in almost all the city churches, which were filled by large and interested congregations. The music in many of the congregations. The muste in many of the houses of worship was especially fine, and in the Reformed Episcopal church a collection, amounting to about $50, was taken up in aid of the Jubilee Hospital.

To Build a Shingle Mill.

To Enild a Shingle Mill.

It is understood that the Janion wharf property has been purchased by Mr. W. E. Losee, who will shortly erect a first class shingle mill, equipped for doing all kinds of work required of it quickly and well. The site is admirably adapted for shipping, being convenient to the wharves and the rail-way and herings will no doubt be done by way, and business will no doubt be done by the new mill.

A Thanksgiving Goose.

A Thanksgiving Goose.

In yesterday's police court, Mary Bissett was charged with stealing two geese, the property of her neighbor, Eliza Anderson. She plead notguilty. Emma Turner solemnly deposed that she saw the defendant kill one of the birds with a stone, the goose being at the time (Friday last) in defendant's yard. The second victim was slain in a similar manner on Sunday. The defence set up was that the geese were tresfence set up was that the geese were trespassing, and the case was dismissed.

His Bail Was Estreated

Da-yota-hea-sa-lar. Street doctor with long hair. An Indian dude, Of Iroquois blood, Who cures all ills, From fevers to chills, With catnip and pills, And syrup of squills, And no patient kills, With big doctor bills, Was gathered in on Wednesday night, And paid ten dollars for being tight.

Assay Well. The samples of ore brought down by Mr. G. B. Wright from the Kaslo-Slocan district, have been found to assay as follows:

triot, have been found to assay as follows:

Bonanza King, 200 to 964 ources to the ton.
Washington, 205 3, 123 8, 129 1, 114 2, 80 7, 135 3.

Last Chance, 179, 182, 300.
Treasure Vault. 169.
Free Coinage, 408, 4 0.
Aiax, 189.
Crown Point, 218, 559, 780.
Climax, 182, 166, 129, 166.
Great Western, 73.
Snow Storm, 142.
Chicago, 202.
Maid of Krin. 172 to 200.
Slocan Star. 147.
R. E. Lee, 131 to 206.
Snow Storm, 148.
Maud E., 127 to 200.
Noble 5, 147 to 225, and a little gold.
Bonanza King, 236 to 964.

Another Big Strike in Kaslo-Siecan.

Charles Chambers and Ed. Becker came into Ainsworth about the 4th inst., bringing news of a discovery of a monster ledge of galena ore, about two miles east of the Hennessy vein. It is said to be from 40 to the ore gave 14 oz. silver to the ton. Upon receipt of the news a fresh exodus took place from Ainsworth, and a large party left Bonner's Ferry on the steamer Spokane for Kaslo City and the new mines. The size and richness of the many veins in the new district exceed anything hitherto known in the history of lead mining. Thousands of persons on the southern side of the line are preparing to visit the new region early in the spring.

Last night, the grand officers of the installation of officers and opening of the new day afternoon. Galant leaves a wife and three children in Seattle, and was a member of the Carpenter's Union of that city, in good standing. He was universally respected by all his fellow workmen, and while in Victoria, working on the Five Sisters' Block, made many friends.

The Lebu Sails.

The British bark Lebu, Capt. W. A. Worral, sails to Liverpool to-morrow with a cargo, consisting of 30,800 cases of salmon, and is large early in the row known in the history of lead mining. Thousands of persons on the southern side of the line are preparing to visit the new region early in the spring.

Interesting Feasile. persons on the southern side of the line are preparing to visit the new region early in the spring.

Last Wednesday night Sergeant Levin left here on the S.S. City of Kingston, for fossils. These were found on some coal left here on the S.S. City of Kingston, for Seattle, with the object of attempting to secure a young man named Herbert Morgan, who had left this city for the Sound, and was accused of having defrauded the Cooperative Supply Company here of various small sums of money. The officer, on arrival in Seattle, had absolutely no clue twork on, but by persistent detective work and that bull-dog determination for which he is famous, he managed to locate and trap his man by next morning. The alleged defaulter was brought back by the Kingston on her return trip. Sergeant Levin is to be congratulated on having so quickly and successfully accomplished and regulations so that it will be quite an object to take prizes in the canine

The Chinese Exedus. Signs of the annual Chinese exodus are already apparent, and numerous tickets have been secured for the Empress of Japan on the 18th inst.

The Warspite Beparts

H.M.S. Warspite, flagship of the station, sailed for the South, Thanksgiving Day, to the regret of those on board as well as of the friends left behind, who will miss the genial and kindly officers, the good-natured crew, and the ever ready musicians composing the band. The Warspite's people expect to spend Christmas in the tropics. Sons of St. George

The three local lodges of the Sons of St. George meet on Monday evening, to consider the Penrose case, in which a member of the order was murdered in Butte, Mon-tana; because, as is said of his connection with the organization, while threats were, on the same occasion, made against members generally. It is also proposed that the membership shall take in persons halling from all parts of Great Britain

The Civil Service Exams.

To-day will see the conclusion of the Civil Service examinations, which have been going on steadily since Tuesday morning. The qualifying subjects (history, grammar, geography, composition, and transcription) were carried out on Thursday, and yesterday the optional subjects of translation precise and book leaving were put yesterday the optional subjects of translation, precise and book-keeping were put through. To-day, those candidates taking up stenography and typewriting will be examined in these subjects.

Mild Disapproval.

To Look For His Brother Ex-Mayor John Hendry, of New Westminster, passed through the city last night, arriving over by the Islander, and taking the Kingston for Tacoma, en route to California. His mission is to solve the mystery concerning his brother Thomas Hendry, who is said to have been spirited away under strongly suspicious circum.

away under strongly suspicious circum-stances. Nothing new is known of the case, and Mr. John Hendry has no facts in his possession other than those given in the dispatch from San Francisco published in the newspapers. Going Home

The crew of H.M.S. Pheasant are rejoicing over the fact that they will be steering for home on the 30th inst. They will leave Esquimalt on that date, and when their craft reaches Vancouver they will change the reeling deck for the land-sharks' rocker through the Rockies and Salbinks and available. through the Rockies and Selkirks, and over the prairies on to Halifax, where they will again have a sniff of the sea breeze. again have a sniff of the sea breeze. The crew of the Champion leaves about the same date, and for a similar destination. Both ships are now out of commission. This is the first time in marine history that a ship's crew is brought overland. How the "joly tars" will enjoy it remains to be seen.

and the passengers down on her were as follows: T. H. Robinson, W. H. Dempster, R. Sutherland, T. Davidson, J. E. Williams and S. Bowyer, The steamer had a very rough trip on the way down, she being detained several days owing to the heavy

Acme Lodge I.O.O.F.

Interesting Fessils.

Mr. Theo. Robinson, manager of Turner, Beeton & Co.'s cannery, Skeena, received by the Boscowitz a box of mineral specinens, among which with the control of the c

From THE DAILY COLONIST, NOV. 16. LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

Died in Denver. Mr. Stephen F. Archibald, brother of Mr. W. F. Archibald, of this city, died in Denver, Col., recently, of typhoid. He was a resident of Truro, N.S., where his bereaved family still live.

He, Too, Prefers & Jury. Charles Davis, who is accused of stealing an assortment of eatables from the steamer Thistle, was brought b fore Judge Drake, on Friday, and asked if he would take a speedy trial or wait for the assizes. He elected to wait for the jury.

At Victoria West. An entertainment by the members of St. Saviour's Guild will be held in Victoria West hall, on Tuesday evening next, in aid of the funds of the St. Saviour's church furnishing. The programme is to end with the amusing farce, "Declined with Thanks."

The steamship Umatilla, which sails

At Liberty. The erratic proprietor of the Half-way House is again at liberty, and is likely to remain so as long as he keeps himself fairly quiet. He has given the police a great deal of trouble and caused his friends consider-

At the Chinese theatre, on Tuesday night last, the actors failed to come up to the standard required by the critical audience, who accordingly smashed the chairs and raised Hail Columbia generally. The engagement was there and then abruptly terminated, and, as for the actors—they never came back.

No Use for Them Here. Two gentlemen smelling of beer, No possible use for them here, Two vags, In rags. The magistrate makes the case clear;

Too many of this kind appear. Must return to their Sound home so dear.

Back from the North.

Steamer Barbara Boscowitz arrived in from Vancouver yesterdsy morning, having called at the Terminal City, on her way down from the north, for orders. She then proceeded to the mouth of the Fraser and discharged 900 tanks of dog-fish oil into the bark Rothesay Bay, thus completing the bark's cargo, The remainder of the Boscowitz's cargo consists of 1,000 tanks of oil and the passengers down on her were as follows: T. H. Robinson, W. H. Dempster,

Mr. H. P. Jacobsen, of 158 Yates street, received a telegram, last night, from the contractors of the new Episcopal church at Wellington, to the effect that Joseph Galant, the man who fell from the scaffold of the building, on Thursday, and seriously injured himself, died at 5 o'clock, yesterday afternoon. Galant leaves a wife and three children in Seattle, and was a member of the Carpenter's Union of that city, in good standing. He was universally respected by all his fellow-workmen, and while in Victoria, working on the Five Sisters' Block, made many friends.

Dominion Brand, Laidlaw & Co.
R. D. W. & Co., Liverpool.
Dominion Brand, Laidlaw & Co.
Dominion Brand, Laidlaw & Co.
R. D. W. & Co., Liverpool.
Harlock Packing Co.
Wellington Packing Co.
tandard Packing Co.

whose commeca discrict is reported to be rich in mineral wealth, showing well for both gold and silver; and many fine speci-mens from both quartz and placer claims were brought down for assay.

Coming Events.

Coming Events.

Nip and Tuck, November 23rd, is the next booking at The Victoria. For December and January, among the attractions listed are Uccle Tom's Cabin, McKee Rankin, Carleton Opera Co., Michael Strogoff, Midnight Alarm, Kate Claxton, Devil's Auction and Katie Putnam.

Park and Police Court. Willy,

> With his gun. Carter, Smarter, Arter Him does run ; Traps him Slaps him, Raps him Belyea, Says he, "Boys, ye Mustn't lark."

"Take One!" "Take one" is a very familiar sign, but those who accept the invitation, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, find themselves nine cases out of a hundred, find themselves the possessors of but some advertising sheet or quack medicine list. On one of the telephone posts on Johnson, a little above Government, street, the significant words appear in bold letters, and that they had the desired effect was evident, vesterday, from the fact that there was nothing to take in the shape of printed matter. How-ever, a few scavengers came along, and hetake in the shape of printed matter. How-ever, a few scavengers came along, and, be-fore getting down to work, went through the ceremony of taking off their coats. Where to hang the coats was their next thought, and, unfortunately, one of the party espied a nail on the post. Here they hung their surtouts, but without realizing hung their surtouts, but without resizing the significance of the act. For some time the coats remained on the nail, with the in-vitation to "Take one" over them. A couple of young lads "caught on," and were helping themselves to a coat, but were noticed in time to prevent what might have heen construed into larceny. been construed into larceny.

New Street Cars, The first of the new N. E. T. & L. Co.'s tram cars came over by the steamer Yosemight last night. The car, which is of the nunder the impression that a considerable legacy was received during the year, and also that a five hundred dollar donation was made by a liberal Burrard Inlet gentleman. As nothing, however, has been received from either source by the treasurer, the friends who have so liberally supported the institution in the past will again shortly be called on for their annual subscription.

The Victoria and Vancouver aldermen were in consultation at Vancouver, yester day, on the subject of Chinese lepers, and the result of the conference is that Vancouver and the result of the conference is that Vancouver and the result of the conference is that Vancouver. The first of the new N. E. T. & L. Co.'s either end of the car and the sand drops in front of the wheels. Another convenience to the motorneer is the controlling stand at each end. The car can turn a sharp curve each end. The car can turn a snap curvery easily, as the trucks move on an axle which turns when required. Very little noise is made when the car is in motion. The car, which arrived last night, will be placed on the James Bay and Spring Ridge line sometime this week.

Last Welnesday night Sergeant Levin men, among which were a number of lath there on the noise of the three three transported of the control o the quarter standing :

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL

The Dreadful Derrick. The derrick used in the construction the new Driard swung round, yesterday, striking a laborer, named William Yerill, and tumbling him into the cellar. A broken rib was the chief injury sustained. Saw Mill and Cannery.

The steamer Barbara Boscowitz, which sails for the North this evening, carries as freight a large quantity of machinery for the new saw mill and cannery at Claxton, on the Skeena River, construction of which will proceed at once.

The Seal Catch. With the arrival of the schooner Mascot yesterday, with a catch of 79 sealskins, closes the season for 1891. During the present year, by a careful computation, the Victoria sealing schooners have brought or sent home 49,498 skins, as against 40,198 of last year, or an advance of 9,300.

Information reached Collector Milne, yes terday, to the effect that the Indians about Cape Beale have looted the bark Sarah o everything of value they could get out of her. They have taken every ounce of meta they could lift, and have even torn out the deck light sockets. robbing the deck light sockets, robbing the deck of every bit of brass on it.

American or Canadian, According to the Seattle Telegram of Saturday, Frank Young, master of the sloop Plug, is in custody on a charge of an infraction of the U.S. revenue laws. Young tried to preschief and a seattle of the Versel are one sailing under the to pass his vessel as one sailing under the stars and stripes, although a British vessel. The captain was formerly a Custom House officer, and "knows the ropes."

toria named Domine, and an employe of Muirhead & Mann named Babington, a brother of Pilot Babington, left their homes here on a cruising and hunting trip, from which they have not yet returned. The anxiety of their friends is increased by the reported finding of a boat similar to theirs off Gordon Head.

Leong Gan Teong.

Leong Gan Teong is the name of the Chinese lady, of unsavory repute, who was refused a landing in Victoria some days ago. She came from San Francisco by the Umatilla, but, unfortunately for her, she was known too well here, and was not allowed to come ashore. When brought back she was not allowed to land at San Francisco, and the latest is that she will be deported to her native land.

Going Ahead.

Will pay up?

Loud laughed he then in glee.

"No, but my fine I'll Save for a Christmas spree."

A Plucky Act.

Shortly after one, yesterday, while Mr. Brydon Jack was driving rapidly round the corner of Broughton and Government streets, he was pitched out of his dog-cart. He held on to the lines and to the shafts, and was dragged around the block to Langley street, on his back, where he managed to turn the animal into the sidewalk and streets. Leong Gan Teong.

As suggested in his report to the directors, a week ago, Mr. Joshua Davies, President of the Jubilee Hospital, has decided to dent of the Jubilee Hospital, has decided to go ahead with the preparations for building a crematory, laundry and electric light power station, in connection with the hos-pital, being well satisfied with the working following officers: President, Mrs. M. Jenkins; vice-president, Miss S. E. Armstrong; second vice-president, Mrs. C. Watson; secretary, Mrs. L. Hall; treasurer, Mrs. A. Seiver; auditor, Mrs. H. Siddall. Committees were also arranged, and plans are being laid for energetic winter work. Any ladies in the city willing to join may send in their names to the president, Mrs. Jenkins. 23 Chamber street.

Action was then taken against Morgan

On Sunday, both morning and evening, Rev. Coverdale Watson made a statement to the congregation of the Pandora Avenue Methodist church of its financial standing. According to this it appeared that the recipts per week had, since the opening of the new building, averaged $17 less than expenses, the Sunday income account for the quarter standing:

A Few Figures

By envelope..... Total..... This, he said, was an average of $133.92 per Sunday. The expenses, which amount to $150 per week, are made up as follows:

The minister concluded by saying that tion. The sisters at the convent and Arch-this was an excellent showing, particularly bishop Feehan approve of it.

since so large a sum was absorbed on interest account. He thought, however, that the congregation could do better, and said that he had no doubt there would be a generous response.

At 1:30 this morning Joseph Bayley, of the Halfway House, was arrested by Officer Hunter of the Provincial Police force at that place, for making a fearful disturbance and acting like a maniac. With great difficulty and after a hard struggle he was put into a hack and conveyed to the cells in Bastion Square. He was, as usual, crazed with drink. The case will come up to-day.

Death's Roll.

The Topeka brings news of the death of W. H. Woodcock, an old and well known pioneer of New Westminster. He is the latest addition to the long death roll of oldtimers, and perhaps none were more popular or passed away with a longer list of friends and acquaintances. Mr. Woodcock breathed his last about five weeks ago, at Wrangle, having spent a life of vicissitudes peculiar to the early settlers of this country.

Bradstreet's Trade Report. According to Bradstreets' last report.

According to Bradstreets' last report general trade in Canada appears to have shown more life during the week, notably in the demand for dress goods and export request for grain. The Dominion reports 30 business failures this week, against 43 last week and 46 the same week last year. The total number from January 1st to date, it 1587 against 1415 last year. The bank is 1587 against 1415 last year. The total number from January 1st to date, is 1,587, against 1.415 last year. The bank clearings at four Canadian cities aggregate $18,600,817 this week, a decrease of 15.2 per cent compared with last year.

Two gentlemen, Messrs. Foster and Lucas,

Five drunks appeared in yesterday's police court, and all were cash customers but one, who, as he turned to re-enter the lock-up for the regulation eight days, fixed his watery eye upon Officer Driscoll, and was heard to softly hum:

Tarewell papa.
Cause of my grief, farewell.
Peeler, ta ta;
I go to a dungeon cell.
Will I pay up?
Loud lauched he then in glee.
"No, but my fine I'll Saye for a Christmas spree."

to turn the animal into the successful and competing to see a serious accident, found Mr. Jack coolly unhitching the horse, the only injury being in the form of a damaged hat and a muddy coat.

following officers: President, Mrs. M. Jenkins; vice-president, Mrs. C. Watson; secretary, Mrs. L. Hall; treasurer, Mrs. A. Seiver; auditor, Mrs. H. Siddall. Committees were also arranged, and plans are being laid for energetic winter work. Any ladies in the city willing to join may send in their names to the president, Mrs. Jenkins, 23 Chamber street.

Committed for Trial.

Herbert Morgan, the young man who was arrested about a week ago, on the charge of embezzling $12, was committed for trial at the Fall Assizes, in yesterday's police court. The evidence in the case went to show that the prisoner had been in the employ of a coperative company, on Yates street, and had been earning a salary of from $25 to $30 per week. But owing to some financial trouble the accused went to Wm. Nolan, on the 8th of this month, and asked him to the did, giving him $12 in cash and allowing diately notified the prisoner's employer, after he had returned from the Sound, who informed him that the check was a forgery. Action was then taken against Morgan.

The Salvation Army barracks were well look out for them. Then I asked them to lay off till Morking, as older well known to the rank and file of the army. The colonel was action being Col. McKie, a soldier well known to the rank and file of the army. The colonel was actioned by Staff Captain Platt, aide-decamp, Staff Captain Banks, and the officers of the local corps. Although an admission fee was charged, there was scarled and the officers of the local corps. Although an admission fee was charged, there was scaled as a complete the risk of laying off till morning, and wait for those aboerd until Agright. They all relieved to do this. At the time there was a heavy sea. The quarter was broken and the was rushing in their names to the president, Mrs. Jenkins, 23 Chamber and the officers of the local corps. Although an admission fee was charged, there was scaled and plantary in the hall. The visiting officer was the feat of the landing the prise of the local corps. Although an adm

GILLESPIE v. BLACK ESTATE ET. AL.—for an order that accounts and enquiries by decree, dated 27th May, be proceeded with, and that defendant do file in office of registrar his said accounts. Granted; accounts to be filed in two weeks. Chas. E. Pooley for plaintiff; Bodwell & Irving for G. E. Corbould.

HARPER v. CAMERON—for extension of time for new trial. Granted, till December 5th. L. Crease for plaintiff; C. Wilson for defendant.

for defendant.

for defendant.

Boscowitz v. Cooper—for examination of defendant, Hannah Warren. Dismissed; costs of defendant to be costs in the cause. ... $568 90 Wilson, Wootton and Barnard for plaintiff; ...$1,749 10 Eberts & Taylor defendant.

> Irish Girls' Work at World's Fair. CHICAGO, Nov. 14.-The Countess of Aberdeen proposes to bring a number of girls from Ireland, place them in charge of a convent here, and have them make Irish lace and needlework for the World's exhibi-

WAS IT MUTINY?

The Official Investigation by Collector Milne Into the Conduct of the "Sarah's Sailors."

the ship." He me. I didn's anything. I do that we should men pulled aw orders. I knew kicked against have had to go men filing into t tion to their coming the boat a went. We had three boats. We been given to was only one I any suggestion others, besides

I don't believe t

I don't believe to to turn back who us. I had two n boat all the time Albert Stevens the boat. I hear or the other, exc didn't hear the p ships at the time Before I got into first mate, "WI He wid "Anybo first mate, "WI He said, "Anybe in. After we ha captain sing out wanted the boat think it was safe had been battere water fast. I he get into the boa

second officer.
anybody might abandoning the secry out after we believe it safe for believe it safe for turn back.

Angus LeitchSarah I scran last of all, on the footing and fell i I was stunned for say how the pain captain called into the boat "Are any more to turn be located in the same transport of the same transport of the same transport of turn back."

THE

closing incidents Greer, at Westm

The Statements In Defence - What Looks on the Surface an Act of Great (owardice

Collector Milne's private office at the Custom House yesterday afternoon was a scene of an official investigation into the conduct of the second mate and nine sea men of the ill-fated ship Sarah, which now lies off the coast of this island, firmly doning the ship, against orders, when their presence was greatly needed by the few people left aboard, and that they, by their reported interviews, is not reproduced here.

Before proceeding to take other evidence, the Collector asked Second Mate McCurdy if he could produce his certificate. The document was handed to Mr. Milne and found to be correct. It was issued in 1890, in McCurdy's 20th year. He fficer, and "knows the ropes."

To suit all Tastes.

The weather, yesterday, was variable enough to suit every taste. The morning opened with the ground frozen solid and ice on standing water an inch thick; then it commenced to snow, snowed for half an hour and added a little hail. Then the sun made its appearance for a few minutes only, and made way for the Rain King.

Were passengers down to the Shumigan group is perfectly true, and are very well pleased with the prospects. The Colonist semetime ago published an account of this valuable discovery taken from the Alaska hour and added a little hail. Then the sun made its appearance for a few minutes only, and made way for the Rain King.

Police Court.

Police Court.

Folice Court.

"Are any more sidered that it wand thought the given orders for I looked upon it who were left beat I set into the state of the state o santness before the wreck among any of the men either, most of whom impress one with being capable and honest. The captain admitted that up to last Sunday they had never disobeyed an order. All the A. B's. shipped at Newcastle, N.S. W. The following evidence was taken:

Second Mate McCurdy—When I went forward the heat mcCurdy—When I went forward the heat mcCurdy—When I Thomas Frank on board after m can corroborate s can corroborate at tain and mate. too hasty in acti They should has sisted us. There in safety much so The evidence of ated that of the cated that of the ca member circumstances of crew getting into boat. I was not the last man in boat. Couldn't say who was. When the ship was cleared from I wanted to take charge At this stage onducted on ve the men every themselves, was morning. Some still remains to was cleared from I wanted to take charge of boat, but was not allowed to. I was in charge of the helm. I steered the boat clear of the ship. I knew the ship was in danger, though the decks at this time were not under water. The spars were not cut away, but standing. The sails were made fast. The ship had sail on when she struck. Chief Justice Beg When I saw the boat in the water, and when I got into it, I didn't know that the The News-Ad when I got into it, I didn't know that the men were preparing to go ashore. I knew that everything was being got in readiness for abandoning ship. Boat kept crashing against side. When I got into boat there was only one man in it. I didn't get in with intention leaving ship. The first mate had previously given me orders to look after boat. After boat left side, we couldn't back on the James Bay and Spring Ridge line sometime this weak.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL from the hundred that the completion of the new and none.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL from the hundred that the hospital are to be drawn at constitution to the property of the new and none powerful, as well as the hundred that the state of the day, posted rates, 4.81 | 6.84 | 6.84 | 6.84 | 6.85 | 6.83 | for element. Green and the form that the state of the day, and namely assessed of the new and more powerful, as well as more degree in the state of the day.

Last set the Newthern Track

The state of the morning's trading was to dish and received the more religion to the very desired throughout, but the fluctuary of the morning trading was to dish and the state of the morning tradi last:

"The Chief Jujury said this was case, there were to decide: 1st, dupon Deputy-She did he do actual dictment it did no Greer's child did fired the gun, alt do it, and all the had shown that he tired at 8.45 retulowing verdict: strong received a accidental discharof the prisoner, a mercy of the Cou His lordship sa verdict; the jureither guilty or not the indictment. and at 11:50 retulaceording to the mendation to me jury why they remercy, and to the his cordship they are any intent to in the was told that wise, and that him for three year tried on the first jury, he would p His Lordship His Lordship said claim had been a tees of the Legis carded. The Ro to decide this claim based upon a fab. The parties from land in the suit than the man in was sentenced vincial penitentia he allowed to sne went ashore to where we saw people, and, landing on beach through the surf, discovered the captain, wife and baby and four men. I asked if I could take Mrs. Green-halgh back to the lighthouse in our boat, but she wouldn't leave the captain. I know the steamer Mystery. She is amall boat. Recollect her coming to Victoria with us aboard. It is true that the men refused point blank, to shovel coal. They didn't re fuse rations. The youngest boy, McLeod.

and myself went and trimmed the coa None of the men would go. After we left the ship I heard the captain sing out from the deck "Turn the boat's head back to Word brought yesterday, on the effect that the Challenge had just for Behring Sea, place for Victoria fact of this little Behring Sea, with proclamation issu and war vessel ha vast tract of wate will probably, be passed, cause a go vided she has a be allowed to spe crow in the codoor. The sheri be handcuffed bef be held till the cr

The Schooner Cha With a Clear

ALL

there is no reason not return to he down with seal begin when she g impossible that cruisers, now at a presence in the S on her return, n on her return, no have leaked out, i be eagerly looked land or ship her made the signal f from some of thos over the way, whe splendid catches v attached as there attached, as there this case. Provid smart man there ities for a nice lit

> SIRS,—For five y and could get yard's Yellow Oil, better remedy for i JOHN DESHEE

A CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF TH