OBITUARY.

Mrs. George McEwen.
Dalhousie, April 6.—The death of Mrs. George McEwen, formerly Miss Margaret E. Johnson, of Chatham, took place on Tuesday morning, after a lingering illness, at her home here. After leaving Chatham she spent a few years in Dalhousie. Most of her married life was spent at Maguasha, P. Q. She was very much esteemed on account of her bright and cheerful disposition and had won the respect of all. Her death will be mourned by a very large circle of friends.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one daughter and one son—Miss Grace J. and John G., both at home. Deep sympathy is felt in this community towards them in their sad bereavement.

The funeral which was largely attended was held today at 2.30. Services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. J. H. McLean. The pall-bearers were Thos. G. Scott, Charles Powell, Alex. Wallace, Andrew Barberie, A. G. McKenzie, James Wallace. Interment was made in St. John's Presbyterian Cemetery.

CHARLO

Lester Faulds student of the Fredrickton Business College spent Easter with his parents Mr. and Mrs. John Faulds.

Mrs. Reid McMillan and children have returned to their home in Eel River after spending a few days in Charlton.

Alex. Jamieson and Harry Dawson, Campbellton spent Monday at the former's home here.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howe on the arrival of a little son at their home recently.

Mr. D. Jamieson spent Sunday in Campbellton.

Mr. Max Vien and family of Quebec have arrived in Charlton for the summer.

Miss Bernadette Hayes of Dalhousie spent Easter at her home here. Mr. Powell Stackhouse of Athol is in Charlton for a few days.

Esthetic.—Two fair munition-workers were discussing their personal affairs.

"Got a chap yet, Lis?" inquired one. "Yes; and he's a regular toff. He's manager at—"

"You don't say so! Why, they tell me he's real refined."

"Rather. Why, he took me to a restaurant last week, and when we had coffee he poured it into a saucer to cool it, but he didn't blow it like common people would—he fanned it with his hat!"

MATAPEDIA WEST

Having seen no notes from our little village for quite a while, I thought I would write a few.

Miss Ida Fairservice (Teacher) is spending her Easter holidays with friends in Bathurst.

Mrs. William Moores has returned from a pleasant trip with friends in Campbellton.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fitzgerald on the arrival of a bouncing baby boy.

Miss Viola Fraser of this place is visiting her sister Mrs. Harvey A. Calder, Campbellton.

Just a space more Mr. Elitor concerning our village Matapedia West. It is a village situated on the first South Range of the Matapedia of St. Lawrence. Settlers coming to this place ages ago finding it a suitable farming place and beholding lovely large brooks running through the woods into the river sought to cut down the immense forest. They did so, calling the place Green Woods, at that time. Farms were then cultivated and more settlers began moving in, the place was then changed to the name Moores Settlement. Two large saw mills were placed on those brooks and times were indeed prosperous. What has happened since then? A new post office has been established and the name Moores Settlement changed to the right name Matapedia.

West. The Matapedia West post office (the name which lies under hand, and seal in the post office department at Ottawa) and which was in charge of the late Robert O. Stiles of this place is now in charge of his son John M. Stiles. All the folks in this place are noted for their kindness and hospitality to travellers. Not only the majority of the people but all are as honest as the day would not steal one half cent, or a bale of cotton from anybody, what they have in their own and gained in an honest way, with no kind of jealousy near them, and now Mr. Editor if ever you and yours are passing through this place in your car and feel tired from your long journey and would like to rest your company will be appreciated and you will indeed find a hearty welcome from all the people in Matapedia West.
