rosse men of this city and Montreal and the Ontarios will once more fight their battle o'er again on the Jarvis street grounds. The Ontarios have played against bad luck all the season. In the match against the Shamrocks at Montreal they were confident of victory until Gerry was injured, while in the last match against the redoubtable Shamrocks they played a flue game, and nothing but the hardest of hard fortune kept them from winning. The match against the Torontos on the Rossdale grounds was a splendid exhibition, and while victory remained with the boys in blue the play was by no means on one side. The result of the match to-morrow will to a large extent decide whether the Torontos have any chance for the championship. If they win their prospects will be bright, but should they have their colors lowered by the Ontarios they will have a hard-time overhauling the leaders. Both teams have been practising hard, and as much rivalry exists between the two clubs and teams it will be really a hard fought-contest. Both sides are confident of victory. Not being prophets, we cannot say who will win, but we hope it will be the best deserving team. It is understood that His Honor Lieut. Gov. Robinson has kindly consented to face the ball for the hope at 3.30 sharp. and the Ontarios will once more fight their

that His Honor Lieut. Gov. Robinson has kindly consented to face the ball for the boys at 3.30 sharp.

The Ontario team has not yet been chosen, but there is little doubt that it will be about the same as played in the club's last match. The Torontos will be selected from the following: S. Martin, W. H. Hubbell, J. S. Garvin, W. Bonnell, J. Robinson, J. McDonald, A. Blight, F. Dixon, C. A. E. McHenry, A. M. Stowe, E. J. Smith, R. B. Coulson and Hardy.

LONDON, Ont., July 9 .- According to ent, the Maple Leaf basebal championship match with the London lub. As they had with them the objectionable pitcher, Bradley, B. C. McCann, the secretary of the Londons, interviewed Mr. Sleeman, president of the Maple Leafs, and requested him to show on what Mr. Sleeman, president of the Maple Leafs, and requested him to show on what authority or permission he was playing a suspended player of the American association. Mr. Sleeman answered that he had authority, but would not show it. Mr. Sleeman was urged not to present Bradley on the field, but refused to withdraw him and said the Maple Leafs would go on the ground and claim the game. Notwithstanding that the Londons notified as many as possible of their patrons, a large crowd assembled at the grounds to see the dispute out. The Maple Leafs took their position. Umpire Goldsmith called time and waited the necessary five minutes. But the Londons refused to play and the umpire said "no game." The crowd, about 1000, felt much disappointed at the action of the Guelph club. The Londons will claim the game.

Hugh McLachlan, trainer for W.
Hendrie, jr., arrived at the Woodbine yesterday with the stable belonging to Mr. Hendrie, comprising Aunt Alice, Lucy Lightfoot, Maggie May, Inspector and Wild Bruce. The horses will remain here two weeks preparatory to going to Saratoga. The Hamilton Times says:

"The 2-year-old colt Wild Bruce merely goes with the stable as a guest, he being a bit young for school. W. Hendrie's (sr.) intentions are to build a race course on his farm for the schooling and training of his thoroughbred and trotting produce. It will be fashioned and equipped similar to many of the large paddocks around New York."

When the Primroses arrived at the Ja: vis street grounds in Toronto yesterday there was no league umpire provided and the Primroses had to accept Sam Reid as umpire. Reid caught for Toronto last umpire. Reid caught for Toronto last year, and is in the employ of the Toronto club this year. So long as the umpire had nothing to do his umpiring was satisfactory, but when he said that Reid, of the Torontos, who ran home from second base without going near third, had scored, the Primroses thought it was time to call a halt. They did, but the umpire stuck to his decision and the Primroses left the field.—Hamilton Times. [In the first place, Reid is not employed by the Toronto club. In the second, his umpiring was thoroughly imparital, and in the third, under the circumstances he could have given no place, Reid is not employed by the Toronto club. In the second, his umpiring was thoroughly imparital, and in the third, under the circumstances he could have given no other decision on the particular point in dispute than he did without violating the rules. From their arrival in town until they left certain members of the Primroses distinguished themselves by kicking vigor.

Teronto,

They don't give you perfect satisfaction we will refund your money. Remember we guarantee our work. We have the largest houses for rent and sale in all parts of bustles and panierly, latest New York styles, cheaper the analysis of the primroses o oubly, and when they found the game geing against them their cantankeroances knew no bounds and they wanted to leave the field. Manager Henigan, however, was calm and judicious in the midst of the tumulyand finally persuaded them to return. As for Macpherson's umpiring, of which the Times also speaks further on, we agree that it was not all it should have been, for in his anxiety not to give the Torontos the best of it he in several instances ruled against them when the facts warranted other decisions. Another example of the way in which the Times has been stuffed is found in the statement that the Torontos refused to play unless Sam Reid was chosen umpire. This is an absolute falsehood. No other man happened to be available, but the Torontos in no way made his selection a question of their playing.—ED.]

For some reason the associated press failed to send us a report of the racing at Monmouth park on Tuesday last. We had, therefore, to wait for the New York York papers to learn the results. The first race, a free handicap sweepstakes, one mile, was won by the Rancocas stable's Pontisc imp. blk. a. by Pero Gomez, 122 lbs., with Conkling, by Hyder Ali, 114 lbs., second, and Herbert, by Gleneig, 117 lbs., third.
