Don't be a clam! but that's old, low will this do. Don't be a 'Kristwa. Klam." get stir'd up to the requirements of the fes-tive season. For he's a jolly good fellow! No! no! We don't mean that exactly, but go down to "The Manmoth" and buy your boy a Christmas suit.

A Merry Christma of the globe, when friends meet each other with the cheerful words. "A Merry Chris' mas no you." H. L. Green wishes you all a merry kims, and hopes his boarders, of which he as more than any other house in the city, will spend one, and also have a happy and grosperous new year, and that he will often ee them to take an oyster supper at at 106 huter street during this festive season, and flerwards for a good oyster stew, only costs o cents, equal to any stew in the city at 25 ents. The bill of fare offered this week is the argeet affair ever attempted at this well nown and popular house. The prices the ame as heretofore, ridiculously low, viz., 90 ents a week for dinners, $2.5' a week for Englishman and fo d of good living himself. Reeps a table the most fastidious cannot find fault with. Any one wanting rooms have only to apply to him, and if not roo u in his house he always has a list of the best rooms in the locality that are to rent, and there is always room for day boarders. His two dining rooms will seat 140 persons at each time, a seating apacity as large as any house in the city. The waiters are more than courteous, and surprisingly quick. You are served as if by magic: no waiting, but as soon as seated one of his many waiters are at your command, ready and glad of the chance of serving you with your order. When a crowd of people are seen turning eastward from Yonge street, north from King and west from Sherbourne, when the CITY CLOCKS STRIKE 12, reopje do not wonder where they are going, for they know at that hour the great temptation at Green's restaurant, and every one that has passed along Shuter street as far as George must have seen the big 106 and 104 in white figures on the wall. Those figures are on the largest, bed and most respectable boarding house in the city—a house during the past 18 months that has be ome as popular under H. L. Green's management as the works of lickens, Walten Scott and other eminent authors, and to all is seems as a fairy tale how in such a short space of time this house should have become know all over Canada. But it's no wouder where the past 18 months that a state of the contract of the past 18 months that a seem as a fairy tale how in such a short space of time this house should have become know all over Canada. In general groceries J. C. Devlin does the largest business of any grocery sio e on King street, west of the market. He is just now offering special inducements—5 per cent. off all cash sale of $1 and upwards, during the holl ay sea on, but not after January I. So now is the time to get that five cents back on every dollar's worth you buy. Devlin has been making specialties of tea and coffee; he has the genuine article, and let the tea companies touch him, if they can. At present he is giving a reduction of 10 cents p-r pound on tea, when sold in 5 lb. lots. His stock of Christmas goods, including raisins—layers and muscatels, the latter the best cooking raisins out—currants, lemons. Valencia oranges, candied peel—citron, orange, and lemon—figs, nuts, etc., comprises a full choice of the best selected. A splendid opportunity for hous-keer-ers to lay in Christmas groceries of the finest quality, and *t the lowest prices.

Every thing in the line to be had at J. C. Devlin's, 225 King street west. Telephone No. 344 for orders. Goods delivered to all parts of the city. The Leading West End Grocery Store

A Brilliant Achiev ment. The grand success of the Mantle and Mourning Establish entat 218 Yonge street is one of the wonders of modern times, and not only has the business far exceeded the most sanguine expectations, but an enlargement of premises has already taken place to meet the unprecedented demand for the novelties they show, which are far superior to anything before attempted in this city; in fact it is now pecognized as the Toronto Emporium of Fashion. The name is I. Pittman & Co. 135x
