SUCCESS--POWER

Your Stock of Faith

Everyone takes frequent glimpses into the future through one of two field glasses—faith or fear. The doers, the winners-to-be, believe in what they want to see. There's something of the guitter in a man who can't see anything good ahead.

Your faithful present will build your successful future, but fears of what's to be will destroy your power to control the present.

Believe your plans good until you find them faulty. Believe in the possibilities of other men. And when you're forced to give up some of your beliefs, find newer and bigger ones to take their places. Faith doesn't demand miracles-but it often accom-plishes them!
