Safe, Clean Cooking

SAFE, because the oil tank is away from the heat, and because the height of flame cannot vary. Clean, because there are no wicks to smoke or need trimming.

Burners can be regulated to give degree of heat desired, and when not in operation are left completely up out of oil contact. The asbestos lining and dead air space, and glass door of "Success" oven ensure heat retention and visible baking.

An economical cooker and baker, beautiful in appearance.

WEDDING

RITCHIE-MILLS

The home of Capt. and Mrs. Samuel Mills, Granville Ferry, was the scene of a very happy event Saturday evening, September 1st, when their youngest daughter, Eva Blanche, was united in marriage to Ralph Ritchie, of Annapolis. Rev. A. W. Watson performed the ceremony in the presence of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride looked lovely in a gown of cream French voile, hand embroidered in yellow, with flowing veil caught with sweet-heart roses, and carried a bouquet of cream roses and maiden hair fern.

As she entered the parlor which had been beautifully decorated in white and yellow, on the arm of her brother, Carmen Mills, who gave her in marriage. Little Miss Marguerite Banks and Miss Hetty Austin, nieces of the bride, acted as flower girls. Mendleson's wedding march was played by Miss Ruth Mills.

The groom's gift to the pianist, a beautiful bar pin; to the flower girls, rings. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served.

The happy couple then started for Milford, N. S., where they will spend their honeymoon.

The many and valuable presents of silver, cut glass, aluminum ware and etc., testified to the bride's popularity.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie will reside in Annapolis.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Alline Huntington, of Schenectady, New York, on the birth of a son, Sept. 5th. Mrs. Huntington (nee Marguerite Hicks) is a former resident of Bridgetown.

CORRESPONDENCE

To the Editor, Bridgetown Monitor.

It was Sunday morning after the Centennial Celebration of the French and English settlement of our town and so many have asked me to give some expression of gratitude in this issue of your valuable paper for the historical records with which we have been favored by Dr. Armstrong, Mr. Gaudet, and Dr. DeWitt, that I am writing this small article even at the risk of breaking our Sunday laws.

The untiring and unselfish zeal of these men in digging up and preserving records to the coming generations will certainly be an enduring monument to their memory, much more lasting than marble slab or polished monument of stone, but we do not want them to wait for that, there is too much of that kind of thing. We want through the columns of your valuable paper now to give them the glad hand of thanks so that they will know that their efforts have been appreciated.

I was prevented from hearing Dr. Armstrong and Dr. DeWitt the evening they presented their papers at the Court House, but I will hear them and I have certainly heard of them.

One thing more, at the risk of trespassing on your valuable space, and perhaps I would not venture on this were it not Sunday morning. We boast of the Christian civilization of this and preceding centuries, but such scenes as were brought to our notice by the history of the expulsion of the Acadians, almost makes us doubt whether we are civilized or not. A little of the spirit of "Do unto others, etc." on the part of the English and the French and all this suffering privation and death could have been avoided. There is room enough in this beautiful Valley for both French and English if they behave themselves and try to help one another live, but Cain and Abel had the whole wide world to themselves and it was not big enough for them to live happily in when they, or even one of them had made up his mind to kill the other.

It will be our duty in the future to extend a friendly hand to any of the Acadian French who settle among us, and by making them welcome to make amends for the mistakes of our ancestors in the past, "so mote it be."

O. S. MILLER.

The Philathea Class of the Baptist Sunday School won out in the quarter attendance contest with the Brotherhood and as a result the gentlemen are organizing to give the ladies a picnic as forfeit. A committee was appointed Sunday and arrangements will be made at once.

It is understood to be the intention of the town authorities to prosecute to the limit parties found defacing the bridge and writing thereon indecent and obscene words and remarks.
