

THE FARMER AND MECHANIC,

A MONTHLY PERIODICAL,

DEVOTED TO

Agricultural, Horticultural, Mechanical,

AND

DOMESTIC SUBJECTS.

VOL. I.

OCTOBER, 1848.

NO. 1.

TERMS,

THREE SHILLINGS & NINEPENCE A YEAR,

Five Copies for $3! Three Copies for $2!!

Except to Agricultural Societies, invariably in advance.

Agricultural Societies and Parties procuring Ten Subscribers, or upwards, allowed a deduction of one-third. It is not requisite that the whole number should be subscribed for at one time, or that they should be sent to one address. The same allowance made for all additional Subscribers over Ten; and Parties procuring Twenty Subscribers, or upwards, will be presented with an extra copy.

TORONTO, C.W.:

Published by Eastwood & Co., 67, Yonge Street,

To whom all Orders must be addressed.

ADVERTISEMENTS,

Relating to Agricultural and Mechanical subjects, inserted at the following Rates, viz.:—Fourpence per Line for the First Insertion, and Twopence for each repetition. None inserted for a longer period than Four Months, as not more than three pages will be devoted to this purpose.

TO OUR AMERICAN EXCHANGES.—Under the present Postal arrangement between Canada and the United States, it is necessary for our American Exchanges to pay the Postage to the lines. We trust they will not object to do this, inasmuch as we are obliged to do the same. They will much oblige by sending us the last Number issued previous to the receipt of this.