

showed that considerable trouble had been taken to put it in good shape. Favorable weather was enjoyed throughout; but the attendance especially on Wednesday was not equal to the merits of the programme offered or the sport to be enjoyed. On the second day, the patronage was flattering to the Association. Considerable disappointment was experienced in the withdrawal of the cracks Bill Bruce, Vicksburg, and Inspiration from their races. Mr. Lowell, of Galt, was the fortunate one, having won all the running money (excepting the steeplechase), with Gil D. Roy and Mary L. The Association have good reason to feel grieved at the lack of interest taken in their races by horsemen, several of the purses not filling. The sterling merits of this Club deserve better from horse owners, and the apathy of the latter may recoil to their own discomfiture. The management was all that could be desired, the indefatigable secretary being assisted in his efforts by the several members of the Club. It is to be hoped the next bill hung up by the Woodstock Association will receive a little more consideration from owners, as the latter can not well afford to allow such a solid organization to withdraw from the arena of sport, as must inevitably be the case if its efforts to contribute to the success of the Canadian Turf is not more appreciated than it has been at this meeting. The summaries of the different contests follow:—

The second day's sport was opened with the trotting for 2:35 class. Of seven entries, five came to the wire. Lady Hill was a strong favorite in the pools before the start, selling for $20, Vanderbilt, $14, and the field $12. The favorite looked too gross for a hard race, not having apparently had a sufficiency of work. For the

This was followed by a steeplechase in which Katey P and Helen Bennett were the only entries. The purse allotted to the cross-country ones on the regular programme was declared off on account of not filling; and this was substituted to give the crowd an opportunity of witnessing a steeplechase, which to many of them was a novelty. $120 was allotted to the entries for contention, over the regular steeplechase ground. Bennett went off with the lead, followed by Katey, at a pace which would not have made a decent jog trot for a snail, and this was kept up for a couple of whirls of the track, save at the water jump on the back side, which was extensive enough to compel them to make a little effort. Turning in on the track Bennett had a couple of lengths the best of it, and running commenced in earnest. Coming up the hill Archie's mare lapped the leader, and when the head of the stretch was reached was at her head, which way they ran to hurdle placed about 75 yards up the track. To this they came with a rush, Katey safely over, but Boyle's mare struck and scrambled over, but could not recover herself quickly enough and was beaten out by a couple of lengths. Helen Bennett pulled up very lame, and it is seriously feared her racing days are over. The following is the summary:—

Same Day—Steeplechase: special purse $120. Dash of about 2 1/2 miles over a fair hunting country.

C Boyle, Toronto, ch m Helen Bennett, by Ulverston, dam Helen Douglass, 150 lbs. 2
A three-minute local trot was next in order. For this there were five starters out of six entries. The first heat was captured cleverly enough by Zorra Boy, closely pressed by Lapland; Rustie and No Name being distanced. Lapland was able to credit the next three to his account. Nora O'Neil being drawn in the third heat.

The concluding portion of the programme was a half-mile heat race, 8 in 5, open to all Dominion bred. Of the five entries only two showed up—Gil D. Roy and Nora B, the Queen's Plate winner. The heats admit of no description as Lowell's entry was at the front every time. The summary tells the story as well as any detailed account.

TROTTLING AT DUNDAS.

A match race came off at Dundas on Friday last between a couple of local green horses. The attendance of spectators was quite large, and considerable enthusiasm was manifested by the friends of the horses. The winner was driven in handsome style by Mr. C. Moss, the former owner of York State. The following is the summary:—

Dundas, June 9.—Match Trot. $50. Mile heats, 3 in 5, in harness.

Time: 3:07, 3:01, 3:04 1/2, 3:06 1/2.

An international match was played at London on Tuesday, between the Tecumsehs of that city and Etinas of Detroit. The home club were the victors by a score of 25 to 4. Hoffman, the catcher of the Detroit team was struck in the eye by the ball, and was obliged to leave the field. Tecumseh stock is looking up for "that pennant."
