

Music.

NELLIE WHITE.

SONG WITH PIANO ACCOMPANIMENT.

WORDS BY KATE WOODLAND.

MUSIC BY DR. J. D. VINTON.

PIANO.

1. Such a dear lit - tle sprito Is
2. Sho's so cun - ning and sweet, With such
3. Sho is not o - ver wise, This
4. As I gazo with do - light, On the
5. If the Fath - er a - bove, In his
6. But the Shep - herd who leads, The dear wee Nellie White, With hair 'like the silk - i - est gold, With eyes that are blue, And quick lit - tle feet, And hands that a fai - ry might own, And the sweet - est of words, Like maid - en I prize, For her years have not yet number'd three; But, for one of her age, I will dear lit - tle sprito, In her in - nocence, beau - ty, and graco; I won - der what thing The dark wis - dom and love, Did not know what was best for us here, I would ask for her feet Paths lambs whom he feeds, Knows best where the green pastures lie; And the storms which descend, In the ro - sy cheeks too; I will paint her and you may be - hold.

songs of spring birds, Come twit - tering forth with each tone.
dare to en - gage Sho's as cute as you oft - en will see.
fu - ture will bring, To dim the sweet light of her face.
blooming and sweet, And eyes un - dimm'd by a tear.
sunshine will end And thorns lead to flow'rs by and by.

Sym. rit.