fits Cavan church recently lost a most active, weful member by the death of Mr. James Johnston, elder.

Ma. Quian also gave a public temperance lecture in the town half, Stonewall, on Wednesday, 25th August.

A specessful choral union has been er-ganized at Carp Village by Rev. J. McLaren, paster of the Presbyterian church at that THE foundation stone of the new Presbyterian church, l'arkdale, Rev. R. P. Mackay, pastor, was laid on Tuesday, 14th, in the presence of a numerous company. Tite Rev. James C. Quinn, M.A., Emer-son, the Grand Worthy Patrietch of the Sons of Temperance, delivered a locture on Total Abstinence in the 1thoul house, Balmoral, on 24th ult. JAMES GILLIPS, of Carleton Place, has subscribed $1000 toward the erection of the new St. Andrew's church in that place, and also made the congregation a present of a site valued at $2500.

At the last meeting of the Lindsay Preshytery, Meass. Petrie, Perrin, Emes, and Gilchrist, student-missionaries, were after examination ordered to be certified to their respective colleges.

In addition to preaching in Fort Coulonge last Sabliath week, Rev. W. D. Billantyne, Pembroke, drove to the Upper Litchfield church, near Bryson, and preached there. He was accompanied by the Hon. George

MR. DONALD MCLEILAN, the well-known bookseller, Hamilton, Ont, died at his residence on the 19th ult., very much regretted. His place of business was a rendezvous for ministers, Sabbath school teachers, and other Christian workers.

On his return from the seasside Mr. W. G. Mills, Ik.A., Queen's University, was pre-sented by the congregation of St. Andrew's church. Seymour, with an invitation to be-come their pastor on the completion of his studies next spring. Mr. Mills, however, declines the invitation.

HONESTY THE BEST POLICY. An honest radicine is the noblest work of man, and we can assure our resiers that Dr. Fowlers Estract of Milo trawberry is not only reliable, but is almost infalible to cure thoulers Meebin, Disentery, Canter of the Stomech and Benefix, and the various sugmer complaints, whose attacks are often sudden and fatal.

OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

It is just as evential that the human bade should have pure bloud, as that a tree or plant should have sep to nourish and lavigorate its growth. Nearly all our badity tile arise from unhealthy bloud. Burdock Blood inters purities this fountain of life, and aggulates all the vita, organs to a healthy action.

THE Preshyterian church, in what is known as the Gandier Mission in Luther, was recently destroyed by fire. The destruction was caused by bush fires. The church was barked round with sawdust and this took fire, and was burning underneath the building for some time before it was noticed.

REV. LOUIS II. JORDAN, B.D., pastor of Erskine church, Montreal, has been eviloying a vacation visit to Bitish Colambia and California. A recent copy of the Montreal Gautte contains the report of an interview in which Mr. Jordan gives a very interesting account of his impressions of the West.

SEND us, on a po-tal card, the names of persons in your engregation or of friends in your social circle who do not take the PRESBYTERIAN REVIEW, and we will send them specimen copies of the paper free of charge. Or send us the names with twenty-five cents each, and we will send the paper regularly to the close of the year.

THE Rev. John Robbins, of Glencoe, has received a communication from the secretary of a Presbyterian congregation in the south of London, England, asking him at what date he could be in London with a view of taking charge of, the congregation. Mr. Robbins preached to this congregation two Sabbaths while in London, last spring.

PRINCIPAL CAVEN has written a letter to the Globe, expressing his pleasure at the result of the vote on College Federation in the Methodist Conference, and his belief that good will come of it. He effectively disposes of the abourd rumours that "the heads of the theological colleges have oppose Victoria's getting a site in the Queen's Patk.

THE first meeting of the season of the Montreal Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society was held in the fecture hall of Ereking church, 3rd inst. Miss Sanderson, vice-president, occupied the chair. Miss Brown read a letter from Mrs. Motton, giving some interesting details about mission work in Trinidad. Miss Samuel also read a very instructive paper on Christian steadfastness, which was much appreciated. At the next meeting the subject to be taken up will be Central India.
