

"Spends more than he receives," is Archbishop Benson's dictum in regard to every Bishop on the English bench. People are apt to lose sight of this fact—which is true, in a degree, of the priests of the Church as well as the Bishops. They are largely drawn from the upper classes of society, and have private incomes sufficient for their support. They not only return professional incomes to the Church in the shape of benefactions, but contribute liberally from their private means as well. They are practically the almoners of the Church—not her stipendiaries.

A SURE PAYMASTER.—Anne of Austria, Queen of France, remonstrating with her bitter enemy, Cardinal Richelieu, observed: "My lord Cardinal, there is one fact which you seem entirely to have forgotten. God is a sure paymaster. He may not pay at the end of a week or month or year, but I charge you remember that He pays in the end."
