GRIP VANISHES

So Do Deadly Colds

Headaches, backaches, dyspepsia, indigestion, constipation, kidney, liver and all kindred troubles, if nature's miraculous, disease-conquering, life-restoring St. Leon be used. All known mixtures in the world pale in insignificance to this creation's mystery. Safe as milk, and contains the most powerful poison absorbents known to science to purify blood and flesh; and also every element to build up frail, weakly, despairing sufferers to the highest pinnacle of perfect strength and joy.

GRIP'S GALLERY OF NOTABLES.

MR. FRANK S. TAGGART.

THIS young man is not a distinguished politician, but is honored with a place in our Gallery because he is a "corker" at business—that is to say, a wide-awake hustler, if you prefer pure and undefiled English. Though still quite young in years, he has graduated from the position of manager of one of Toronto's leading manufacturing concerns, and is now at the head of the firm of Frank S. Taggart & Co., in a similar line of industry, to wit, Firearms, Jewellery and Watches, on King Street West. The above portrait is specially valuable as being the first that has appeared since Mr. Taggart ceased to be a bachelor. This accounts for the unusual happiness of the expression he wears, and GRIP hopes he may long live to wear it. He has deserved his success in business by hard work; his success in the court of Cupid is due, no doubt, to his good looks combined with the taking way he has.
