They Help

Each other. Grocers and general store-keepers will find a profitable adjunct to their business in a line of our celebrated cigars. Once get a customer into the way of dropping in for a good cigar and you'll be surprised at the result. He comes in to buy only groceries and one of our fragrant LA CADENAS may catch his eye. He comes in for one of those satisfactory LA FLORAS to smoke on his way to the office and some new arrival in groceries tempts him into a purchase. See how it works? Profit both ways.

He may make a selection from other and less expensive brands such as

EL PADRE
MAORE E'HIJO
CABLE EXTRA
KICKER
MUNGO

All of which sell well.

Mercantile Summary.

We continue to hear from Sherbrooke of failures in that place. The latest is that of Wm. Murray, wholesale grocer, who has assigned. Mr. Murray got behind last spring, and after considerable negotiating, arranged a compromise at 25 cents on the dollar. His present liabilities are not yet ascertained.—Bertrand Bros, a small grocery concern, only opened in November last, have already been closed by creditors. Starting with little capital, and less experience, this result was not unexpected.

We learn that V. Brosseau & Co., dry goods dealers, etc., who were sufferers by the recent fire at Bedford, Que., are arranging a compromise at 45 cents on the dollar, cash. They owe about $8,500, and the principal item of assets is an insurance of $5,000.—Cyrille Jasmin, who returned from Kansas in 1889, with a little money, and opened a grocery business in Coaticook, is now reported an absentee, and a meeting of creditors is called for the 24th instant to appoint a curator.—A. Leost & Co., a firm of hardware dealers at St. Hyacinthe, have gone into liquidation.—At Eaton Corner, Que., A. S. Cooper, shoemaker, a resident of two years standing, has assigned, with small liabilities of $600.—From Port Daniel, on the far away Bonaventure coast, the Rev. E. Gagnon writes that his brother, F. X. Gagnon, general store, has been burned out, store, stock, and account books being all destroyed. There is only enough insurance to warrant an offer to creditors of ten cents on the dollar.—Eusebe Turcot, a lumber dealer in a small way at St. Chrysostome, has been asked to assign.

Pongee Silks!
