Mr. Smith: I ask that the remaining questions be allowed to stand.

[Translation]

Madam Speaker: The questions enumerated by the Hon. Parliamentary Secretary have been answered. Shall the remaining questions be allowed to stand?

[Fnolish]

Mr. Friesen: Madam Speaker, I would like to point out to the Parliamentary Secretary that I have had a question on the Order Paper since December 2, 1981. It is a long question but a very simple one to answer. It has to do with the number of employees working in the Solicitor General's Department across Canada. I do not know why it has not been answered. It might be the fact that the Solicitor General does not want us to know that there are possibly more employees in the Department than there are guarding the inmates. At any rate, it has not been answered, it is important for me to know and I hope that the fact that my daughter did not attend school with the Parliamentary Secretary will not inhibit his desire to answer the question.

Secondly, on December 14 I placed a question that relates to a dish being bought by the Department and installed at Elbow Lake Detention Centre. As Members know, the Minister of Communications is somewhat in the glue over his policy regarding satellite dishes, one has been purchased for a minimum security facility. I would like to have that particular question answered.

Mr. Smith: Madam Speaker, I would be very happy to look into this matter on behalf of my hon. friend, who is a co-Member of the Parliamentary Prayer Group with myself. I might say to him that we are not afraid to answer a comprehensive question on that matter, as we answered one for the Hon. Member for Saskatoon West which must have weighed ten pounds when it was tabled.

Mr. Reid (St. Catharines): Madam Speaker, while the Parliamentary Secretary is still with us I would like to refer a question to him, No. 4,502. While this has been on the Order Paper for a much less period of time than that of my colleague's, it is one that relates to a Bill which is before us for consideration now, Bill C-95, and to the amount of moneys received by the federal Government under a 1979 federal-provincial agreement with respect to lotteries.

I wonder if the Parliamentary Secretary would give attention to that item and have it answered so that it can be part of our deliberations now. There is a related question, No. 4,531, and we would appreciate the answer to that one as well.

Mr. Smith: I would be happy to look into both of these matters.

Mr. Greenaway: Madam Speaker, I thought the Parliamentary Secretary to the President of the Privy Council used the term "ten pounds", and I was worried that he might find himself in serious trouble with the Minister of Consumer and Corporate Affairs! I wonder if he could correct that statement and put it in metric measurement for us, so we can understand what he was talking about.

Mr. Smith: Madam Speaker, it should read 4.37120 kilos!

Mr. Hnatyshyn: Madam Speaker, being a recipient of this package, I weighed it and the Parliamentary Secretary is wrong on all counts.

Madam Speaker: The remaining questions will stand.
