

Liberal tax fairness. It is now time to concentrate on the tax unfairness of the Conservatives and have the vote.

Ms. Copps: Mr. Speaker, (a) the Liberal Party supported flow-through shares. It was the Liberal Party that introduced flow-through shares. For the Hon. Member to say the Liberal Party is opposed to flow-through shares is absolute balderdash; (b) the NDP is the only Party that I am aware of, unless there are others, which runs on a Party platform at the municipal level, and in the City of Toronto funds its local candidates through donations to the federal Party. These donations were intended for federal candidates. This is a tax scam. Whether it is a Tory tax scam or an NDP tax scam, it is a tax scam and should be renounced. I expect the Hon. Member to bring forward an amendment in that regard.

Some Hon. Members: Question.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

Some Hon. Members: No.

Income Tax Act and Related Acts

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those in favour of the motion, will please say yea.

Some Hon. Members: Yea.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: All those opposed, will please say nay.

Some Hon. Members: Nay.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: In my opinion the yeas have it.

And more than five Members having risen:

Pursuant to order made Thursday, August 25, 1988, the recorded division on the motion stands deferred until six o'clock Monday, August 29, 1988.

Is it the wish of the House that I call it three o'clock?

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: It being three o'clock, pursuant to the order made on Monday, June 20, 1988, this House stands adjourned until Monday next at 11 o'clock a.m.

The House adjourned at 2.23.
