Dear Jim,

I have shown your letter of the 14th October to Professor Sullivan and he says he would be unable to say whether there would be anything in your grandfather's library which we could use until he sees the lists. When you send these along I shall gladly take the matter up again.

With all good wishes,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.

P.S. As to your last paragraph, I expect to be here most of the time. At present I am laid up with a touch of sore throat; October 26th to 29th I may be in Kingston. Armistice Day weekend I shall spend in Toronto.
