

To Sir Arthur W. Currie
Principal of McGill University

Dear Sir,

I have now been a teacher at the McGill Conservatorium of Music for well nigh fifteen years.

Lately certain incidents occurred which have sensibly annoyed me and upset the happy course of events which has always existed during my connection with McGill.