

June 25, 1926.

L.C. Raymond, Esq.,
Macdonald College,
Macdonald P.O.,
P.Que.

Dear Mr. Raymond:

I must thank you very much for your letter of June 22nd it would have given me a great deal of pleasure to attend some or all of the ceremonies at Macdonald but I have just had a cable from my mother which obliges me, if at all possible, to go to England. Nevertheless I appreciate your invitation highly.

Very truly yours,

Wilfrid Bovey.

WB/EA.