

"Oh, that's not the question," interposed the woman ; "keep to the point, sir. What has your way of thinking done for you ?"

The infidel endeavored to shirk the matter again ; the feeling of the meeting found vent in uproarious applause, and the skeptic lecturer had to go away discomfited by an old Christian woman.

If God sent His Son down into this world and didn't give you power to believe, and then punished you eternally for not believing on Him, He would be an unjust God. But God doesn't do that. With the command to believe, God gives you the power. You can lay hold of Christ and believe to-night, if you will, and be saved. Now the question comes on the will again. Some say : "I haven't got the right kind of faith." What kind of faith do you want ? Some are waiting for a kind of miraculous faith. We want only the same kind of faith we have in one another. Don't wait for miraculous faith, but use the faith we have. Any faith that brings Christ is the right kind of faith.

THE BEGGAR AND THE MONEY.

Suppose I meet a man out on the streets here begging every time I pass him. To-morrow I find him dressed up, and I say : "Hallo, beggar, how is this ?" And he says : "Don't call me a beggar. I'm a beggar no longer !" "Why, how's that ?" Well, last night I stood here, asking for money, and a man came along and gave me five thousand dollars," he tells me. "How do you know he did ? Do you feel it ? I ask him. "Feel it ! Why, I've got it. They took the money down at the bank," he says. "Well, I wish you'd explain how you got it." "Why, the man put out his hand and gave me the money, and I took it," he answers. "How do you know it was the right kind of a hand ?" I ask. "What do I care about the hand ? It is good money, and I've got it." Very well, my friends, what do you care about the sort of faith. If you have got Christ, you have got faith. If you have got the right kind of Christ, you have got the right kind of faith. Any faith that brings me Christ is the right kind of faith. Sinner, take God at His word. Say