The Works of Josephus are only second in importance to the Sacred Scriptures as a History of the Ancient Jews. The engravings are good, and the explanatory notes are valuable.

2. The Ancient History of the Egyptians, Carthaginians, Assyrians, Babylonians, Medes and Persians, Grecians and Macedonians. By M. ROLLIN. Translated from the French. Revised, Corrected and Illustrated with Maps. In six vols. 8vo., cloth, pp. ii, 315+v, 466+vi, 461+v, 455+vi, 460+vi, 464=2261. (English Edition.) Price $5.00.

Ibid.—Including a History of the Arts and Sciences of the Ancients. By CHARLES ROLLIN. Illustrated with Maps and Plans. With a Life of the Author, by JAMES BELL. In two vols. Large 8vo., sheep. Double columns, pp. xlvii, 584+xii, 801=1343. (American Edition.) Price $2.40.

This standard History is remarkable for the elegance of its style, the purity of its moral and Christian sentiments, the variety of its biographical sketches and details. It was written for young men in their scholastic studies; but it has been read, and doubtless will be read, with profit and delight by persons of all ages and pursuits.

3. Ancient History:—Containing the History of the Egyptians, Assyrians, Chaldeans, Medes, Lydians, Persians, Macedonians, the Seleucide in Syria, the Parthians and Carthaginians. From Rollin and other authentic sources, both ancient and modern. With six Maps. One vol., large 8vo., cloth, pp. iv, 116+iv, 72+iv, 123+iv, 136+iv, 59=526. Double columns. (London Religious Tract Society.) Price $2.00.

Intended as a historical companion of the Bible,—methodical and comprehensive, impartial and cautious; combining the physical and topographical history of countries with the civil, military, political and literary history of the nations that inhabited them.

4. A Manual of Ancient History:—Containing the Political History, Geographical position, and Social state of the Principal Nations of Antiquity; carefully revised from the ancient writers. By W. C. TAYLOR, LL.D. Revised by C. S. HENRY, D.D. Royal 8vo., cloth, pp. xii, 323, (Questions) 35=370. (American Edition.) Price $1.00.

This Manual is designed both for the student and the general reader. The object of the author is rather to store the mind with principles, than to load the memory with facts. It is with this view that the facts relative to the history of each of the countries of antiquity are related, and they are judiciously preceded in each case by a Geographical Outline of the Natural History of the country itself. It is an excellent introduction to the study of ancient history.

5. Universal History:—From the creation of the World, to the beginning of the eighteenth century. By the late Right Hon. ALEXANDER FRASER TYTLER, Lord Woodhouselee. In six vols. 16mo., cloth, pp. viii, 328, +vii, 324+vii, 324+viii, 303+vii, 336+viii, 346=2006. (English Edition.) Price $4.00.

Ibid.—By the Hon. ALEXANDER FRASER TYTLER and Rev. EDWARD NARES, D.D. Edited by an American. In six vols. 16mo., half sheep, pp. 335+330+330+299+280+374=1954. (American Edition.) Price $2.25.

Ibid.—In two vols. Royal 8vo., cloth, pp. xi, 524, xi, 524=1070. (American Edition.) Price $2.25.

The plan of this history is peculiar—placing the predominating nation for the time being in the foreground of the picture, and grouping the events of subordinate nations around the principal object. The plan is happily executed, and the dryness of general annals is relieved by the introduction of many beautiful descriptions and touching narratives.

6. The History of the World:—From the earliest period to the year of our Lord 1783; with particular reference to the affairs of Europe and her colonies. Translated from the German of Baron JOHN VON MULLER. Revised, corrected and illustrated, by a notice of the life and writings of the author. By ALEXANDER H. EVERETT. In four vols. 12mo., cloth, pp. vii, 372+381+380+407=1550. (American Edition.) Price $2.75.

This is, perhaps, the best of the German universal Histories; it is a splendid survey of the tide of human affairs, ingenious in making and distinguishing the periods of general and national history, felicitous in grouping analogous and contemporaneous events,—acute in observing and tracing the causes, progress and decline of national prosperity and social culture,—graphic in descriptions, and touching in narratives and allusions. The work, however, is rather adapted as a review, and generalization of the great facts of history, than as an introduction to the study of it. It assumes more knowledge on the part of the reader, than is possessed by beginners.

7. Eastern Arts and Antiquities:—Mentioned in the Sacred Scriptures. With numerous illustrations. 16mo., cloth, square, pp. iv+366. (London Religious Tract Society.) Price 90 cts.

This is a carefully compiled and graphically illustrated history of the Jews during a most eventful period of their fortunes.

10. Thirty Prints:—With explanations, of Places mentioned in the Holy Scriptures, illustrative of the Fulfilment of Prophecy. 16mo., cloth, pp. 123. (London Christian Knowledge Society.) Price 50 cts.

This is a little work of much learning and great artistic skill, and presents to the eye and mind of the youthful reader the ruins of ancient cities, as thirty witnesses, that are above suspicion, to the truth of Holy Scripture.

11. Scripture Topography of Palestine. 16mo., cloth, pp. 435. (London Christian Knowledge Society.) Price $1.00.

The map and illustrations add to the value of this otherwise interesting volume. The object of this work is, "1st. To bring together in one view those passages of Scripture in which the place under notice is mentioned. 2ndly. To give a brief historical sketch of such place. 3rdly. To narrate those particulars of its present state, which may be gathered from the works of travellers. And, throughout, to direct the mind of the reader to the fulfilment of prophecy, wherever the accomplishment of the Divine predictions can be distinctly traced."

12. Palestine, or the Holy Land:—From the earliest period to the present time. By the Rev. M. RUSSELL, LL.D. Half sheep, 18mo., pp. 330. (American Edition.) Price 38 cts.

This volume is one of the series of the Edinburgh Cabinet Library. It includes an outline of the natural history of Palestine, applied to the illustration of the sacred writings, and more especially of the Mosaic laws, besides a view of the political constitution, antiquities, literature, festivals, and religion of the Hebrews.

13. Scripture Manners and Customs.—Being an account of the Domestic Habits, Arts, &c., of Eastern Nations mentioned in Holy Scripture. (London Christian Knowledge Society.) 12mo., cloth, pp. 516. Price 90 cts.

To both the eye and mind of the youthful reader are the interesting subjects of this volume attractively presented,—to the one by numerous beautiful engravings, to the other by judicious compilations from the travellers.

The titles of these volumes indicate their subjects, which are discussed with great learning and ability. The style, though overloaded with
