Speaking in support of his resolu-tion, Lord Rosebery said that he be-lieved that, on these principles, it would be possible to reform the upper chamber to a large extent, solve a great constitutional problem, and maintain the ancient constitution of the country without convulsions incident to a reform by general elections. Will Be Shewn at London's Festival of Empire-Big Crowds Visit St. Lawrence Arena.

The Ontario Horticultural Exhibition continues to graw unprecedented crowds to the St. Lawrence Arena from all parts of the province. "I want to publicly thank the press and the people of this city and the towns about," he said last night, "and now that I know that I have their conndence I will not be afiald to go to any limit to make this exhibition the finest in America." This gives some idea of the success of fruit growing in Ontarlo, and is good to hear after the loud advertising of British Columbia and Washington. On Mr. Gibson's own orchards he averaged 150 barrels per acre, which in the very poorest year would bring in a clear profit of $200. And sometimes 300 barrels are taken off an acre.

That the officers have taken great pains to have everything of the highest class is further exemplified in the fine music which is being rendered each night. Glionna's Orchestra were the musicians last night, and everyone was immensely pleased with their performance. To-night the Haydn Quartet will sing to the crowds, Mrs. Fred Score is the chief vocalist.
