CHINESE ARRESTED ON GAMING CHARGE

Seventy-Four Alleged Gamblers Pay Heavy Bail Bonds.

Breaking down heavily barricaded doors over 81 Elizabeth street, Saturday night, Inspector McKinney and plainclothesmen Ward and Clarkson raided an alleged Chinese gambling house and seized 74 persons. Lee Bing is charged with being the keeper and was held on bail of $1,000. Bail bonds to the extent of over $15,000 were made out at West Dundas street station when all of the men arrested in the raid were released on bail. The police were informed that a "big game" was to come off Saturday evening, and at 10.30 they sent their men to rush the game. Guards were found to be on the doors, and the men from the front hallway were other doors heavily reinforced for fear the police might come in.

The police sent their "look-outs" in and after they had given the pass word, they blocked the door and the plainclothesmen who were eagerly waiting crouched on the floor spring upon the doorman and made an entrance to the premises. Several tables of fan tan and cow poker were in progress and the police after removing the prisoners to the station carted a wagon load of tables, chairs and gambling paraphernalia away. They claim to have seized some $15,000 before the players turned them over.

MONTENEGRINS RISE AGAINST OCCUPATION

Government Wants Representation at Versailles Peace Conference.

EVACUATION URGED

Separate Envoys From Jugoslavs at Paris Are Sought.

Paris, July 27. — The Montenegrin government, in an official statement, replying to demands made upon it by Serbia, maintains that the Montenegrin people are engaged in an uprising against the Serbian troops of occupation and declares that the Serbian government was interpolated recently on this subject in the parliament at Belgrade.

In the statement the Montenegrin government reiterates its demand that it be given representation at the peace conference, and that the Serbians evict the Montenegrin in order to put an end to the struggle. Alleged excesses by Serbian troops in Montenegro were complained of early in this month by the Montenegrin government, which is that of King Nicholas, the headquarters of which are in a suburb of Paris. King Nicholas never having recognized the action of the national assembly of Montenegro last December in deposing him and voting to unite their country with the Serbo-Croat-Slovene state. Montenegro is not represented separately at the peace conference, the representatives of Jugoslavia looking after her interests.

GENERAL BICKFORD DENIES RUMOR

Knows Nothing About Succeeding Chief Grasset Police Dept.

Brig.-General Harold C. Bickford, yesterday denied the rumor current in police circles that his name was mentioned to succeed Chief H. J. Grasset, as head of the Toronto police department. Col. Grasset leaves today on month's vacation and will return to duty according to a statement given out by himself. When asked if he was going to resign, the chief replied, "Not for some time yet."

General Bickford returned recently from Siberia, where he was in charge of the Canadian forces. During the August riot in Toronto in 1918, he was in command of this military district. For the past week, it has been whispered around police quarters that Gen. Bickford would head the force in the event of Col. Grasset's resignation.

Officers on the force refused to discuss the rumor, but remarked that the Toronto police force was never known to have as its chief a man who had risen from the ranks.

POLISH JEWS PROTEST AUTONOMY IN SCHOOLS

Warsaw, July 27. — The Polish Catholic Israelite Patriotic party today published an open letter addressed to the cities, protesting against Jewish autonomy in Poland and particularly against the schools, which it says, "raise a Chinese wall between citizens of the same country."

"We are deeply grieved at this," the letter continues, "both as Poles, (for it is an insult to our country), and as Israelites, since the hopes we had formed concerning our relations at home have become vain. We appeal to your conscience to remove this restrictive clause."

AUGUST FURNITURE SALE

MURRAY-KAY

COMPANY LIMITED

Our First August Furniture Sale is a History-making Event

With an exquisite, harmonious setting, the most beautiful Furniture Floor in all the Dominion is a rare treat just now for everyone who loves the new—the beautiful—the distinctive—the ornate.

From time immemorial furniture has been the symbol of the craftsman's art, and history has been immeasurably enriched by the prestige of its period designs.

It has strikingly portrayed the inspirational art of different periods, and one can fairly trace the tasteful and refining influence of the time, indelibly woven into its very lines—expressing that which is perfect in refinement and adornment. Furniture owes its intrinsic value to the pride of its designers—a precious heritage they have given to posterity. Take, for instance, the Chippendale influence—what a prestige it still holds through its graceful, artful lines—becoming richer through the years.

Chippendale received his inspiration from the Chinese, and his art will live, no doubt, throughout all ages.

Good furniture was never so plentiful in this store, no matter how scarce it may be elsewhere. There is no gain saying that our first August Sale exhibit is a history-making one for this store.

The backbone of our entire stock reflects quality. It is a sale of economy as well—a sale in which economy is going to mean more than ever before. Nearly all the furniture comprised in this sale was bought in a much lower market than the present one. This means conclusively that practically all the furniture in it has advanced very materially in price since we placed our orders.

According to the best authorities in the furniture business prices are going to rule higher for some years. It points to the wisdom of buying now all the furniture you are likely to need for a good while. Remember, the Murray-Kay store is the home of good furniture, and its 70 years of service, linked with the public's confidence, means everything to the prospective purchaser of furniture.

MACQUODALE-CULL.

A wedding took place at the house of Mrs. D. S. Macquodale, 199 Devoncourt road, when their daughter, Maud, was married to John Letroy Cull, Marsten, Orillia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. Scott Fulton. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of white georgette crepe and crepe de chine, and wore an unadorned veil, caught with orange blossoms and white heather, her only ornament being a bar pin of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Cull left for Algonquin Park, the bride traveling in a two-toned Norfolk tailor-made, and Farnham hat. On their return they will live in Toronto.

At Trinity Church, Aymer, West, Frances Hazel, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilmington-Ingram, Aymer, and niece of the Rt. Rev. Arthur Bishop of London, was married to Mr. Clarence St. C. The groom's gift to the bride was a Hudson sail scarf, and to the bridesmaid a gold bar pin set with amethysts. The best man was given a gold sleeve link, the bridesmaid a traveling gown of navy blue serge, with hat of taffeta and georgette crepe trimmed with ostrich tips at the back. After a motor trip thru the Georgian Bay District, Mr. and Mrs. Ball will live in Toronto.

CHINESE QUESTION NOT CASE FOR WAR

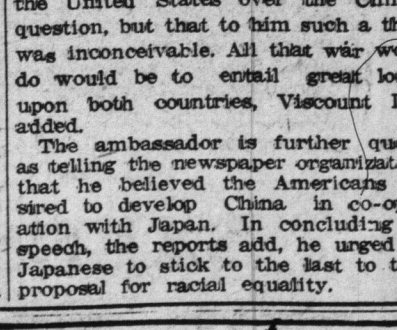

Tokio, July 27.—Newspaper reports of an address delivered to the Tokio Press League by Viscount Kikukuro Ishii, ambassador to the United States, who recently returned to Japan, quote the ambassador as saying that some Japanese seemed to fear that war might break out between Japan and the United States over the Chinese question, but that to him such a thing was inconceivable. All that was needed would be to entail great losses upon both countries, Viscount Ishii added.

The ambassador is further quoted as telling the newspaper organizations that he believed the Americans desired to develop China in co-operation with Japan. In concluding his speech, the reports add, he urged the Japanese to stick to the East to their proposal for racial equality.

After the singing of the hymn, "The Strife is Over," Rev. Corp. Ward of the Christie street hospital, and who was wounded in the war, gave an impassioned address, basing his remarks on the words, "A message from the dead." There is nothing that I honor more than to be here today as a substitute for Rev. Sidney Lambert," said the speaker. "Because I have fought with your husbands, brothers and friends at the front, and I know the kind of men I had to deal with from Earlscourt. Mr. Ward scored the selfish wealthy people whose lives, he said, were useless, for they lived for themselves only, and characterized them as dead lives in contradistinction to the men who had fought and fallen, but who were not dead in the proper sense of the word, for their deeds were living deeds, deeds that would live forever.

The profiteer also came in for denunciation by this speaker. They gloried, he said, in the fact that criminal profits were justified, losing sight of the fact that the relatives of the men who were gathered here today had borne the brunt of the fighting, had given up their lives willingly to save the world from such methods as practised by these very profiteers. "I only received a scratch compared to some of the men in this great war," said Mr. Ward. "The message I leave with you today," concluded the speaker, "is—enlist under the banner of Jesus Christ."

VETERAN BODIES HONOR THE HEROIC DEAD

this great burial ground many an eye was moist with tears, and many a soldier's widow dressed in mourning relieved the silent sympathy of her neighbor. So that when the great ceremony was held at the house of the bride's parents, George street, for the near relations and friends of the bride and groom. The groom's gift to the bride was a Hudson sail scarf, and to the bridesmaid a gold bar pin set with amethysts. The best man was given a gold sleeve link, the bridesmaid a traveling gown of navy blue serge, with hat of taffeta and georgette crepe trimmed with ostrich tips at the back. After a motor trip thru the Georgian Bay District, Mr. and Mrs. Ball will live in Toronto.

The opening hymn was "The Saints of God," followed by prayer by Rev. C. A. Mustard. The chairman was Comrade P. J. Richardson, president of the Earlscourt branch of the G.W.V.A., whose remarks were brief and to the point, and who said that this great meeting was proof that Earlscourt knew how to honor and reverence the noble dead and an object lesson to the whole of Canada.

City of Future. Rev. A. J. Reid, rector of St. Chad's, gave an address on the blessed future of a hereafter and reminded the hearers that the day was coming when a blessed fellowship would be consummated and when all the nations of the earth, including Germany, would take part. He asked the people to remember the benediction contained in the last chapter of the Bible, and to honor the brave men who had given up their lives, by living themselves henceforth to the honor and glory of God.

After the singing of the hymn, "The Strife is Over," Rev. Corp. Ward of the Christie street hospital, and who was wounded in the war, gave an impassioned address, basing his remarks on the words, "A message from the dead." There is nothing that I honor more than to be here today as a substitute for Rev. Sidney Lambert," said the speaker. "Because I have fought with your husbands, brothers and friends at the front, and I know the kind of men I had to deal with from Earlscourt. The profiteer also came in for denunciation by this speaker. They gloried, he said, in the fact that criminal profits were justified, losing sight of the fact that the relatives of the men who were gathered here today had borne the brunt of the fighting, had given up their lives willingly to save the world from such methods as practised by these very profiteers. "I only received a scratch compared to some of the men in this great war," said Mr. Ward. "The message I leave with you today," concluded the speaker, "is—enlist under the banner of Jesus Christ."

Decorate Father's Graves. After the speaking, the impressive ceremony followed of placing the flowers and decorating the graves of the soldiers by pretty little children all dressed in white, many of whom were daughters of those brave men sleeping beneath the mound. The crowd formed a semi-circle, and with bared heads they watched the little ones performing this sacred duty amid a profound silence. Quietly and seriously the children performed their work, their white dresses forming a pleasing contrast to the beautiful carpet of well-trimmed grass, which is so carefully kept in this cemetery.

The closing hymn was Abide With Me, to the tune of Eventide, which was heartily sung by the crowd, accompanied by the Salvation Army band and the massed choirs grouped behind the platform. Thus ended another memorial service, the earnestness, solemnity and patriotic fellowship, has never yet been surpassed in any such ceremony in Earlscourt.

A Pathetic Sight.

A sight that will not easily fade from the memory was a group of hospital patients from the Toronto military hospitals who were near the platform. Some of these men were armless and legless, some had lost one eye, others with hands cut off at the wrists, yet with cheerful and smiling faces. Some of the men wore medals and other decorations and they all appeared to appreciate the kindly words of the speakers and the touch of sympathy extended to them, that sympathy that makes the world kin.

J. H. Harper, state chairman of St. Chad's Church, led the singing. Members of the ladies' auxiliary of the Earlscourt branch of the G.W.V.A., who have worked hard for many days in arranging details, the whole affair passed off without a hitch, considering the enormous crowd of people who came to do honor to the memory of the men who have "passed on."

Mayor Church, who was announced speaker, did not put in an appearance. John R. Robinson, honorary president of the B. I. A., was present.

After the singing of the hymn, "The Strife is Over," Rev. Corp. Ward of the Christie street hospital, and who was wounded in the war, gave an impassioned address, basing his remarks on the words, "A message from the dead." There is nothing that I honor more than to be here today as a substitute for Rev. Sidney Lambert," said the speaker.
