An old Physician Bead.

New York, Dec. 5.—Dr. John Ellis died of pneumonia in this city on Thursday. Is was born in Ashfield, Mass., 1815, and ras graduated from the Pittsfield Medical follege in 1842. He practised medicine in riand Rapids, and in 1846 removed to Deroit. Mr. Ellis came to this city at the utbreak of the war, and for two years was professor in New York Homeopathic dedical College. In 1867 he invented a process for manufacturing lubyicating oil to be used in the cylinders of steam engines. If John Ellis & Co. He published several vorks, among them one on "Family Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Family Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Family Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Family Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Family Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Family Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Family Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Family Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Samily Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Samily Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Samily Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on example several works, among them one on "Samily Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Samily Homeowathy," and another entitled "Avoidable several works, among them one on "Samily Howeowathy,"

Mr. A. J. G. Swinney, superintendent of the Canadian Gold Fields Company at Deloro, and Mr. Fred fillick of London, Eng., arrived at the Rossin last night, having just returned from England. They were met by Mr. H. K. Pickard, controller of the company's reduction plant. He told The World that the works would be sufficiently advanced early in February for the treatment of ore.

Grand Trunk Traffic Returns. The Grand Trunk Railway returns of traffic for the period ending Nov. 30, 1896: Passenger train earnings $146.-841; in 1895, $150,548. Freight train earnings, $294,899; in 1895, $318,345. Total $441,748; in 1895, $468,893. Decrease $27,153.

R. J. Hunter, tailor, King-street, will con-mue the business. The creditors have ac-epted 45 cents on the dollar for the stock and 27½ cents for the book debts. The statement of Jesop & Co., general tore, Blyth, shows liabilities of $4,500, while assets amount to only $1,200. The prospect for creditors is slim. The credit-press will meet in Assignee Tew's office on Fhursday. H. P. Pollock, fruit dealer, Goderich, is ndeavoring to effect a compromise. William Beamish, furniture, Pembroke, as assigned. A. Turcotte, shoes, Tweed, has compro-ised at 35 cents on the dollar.

HE GOT SIX YEARS. His Beserts at Last.

Columbus, Ohio, Dec. 5.—Joseph Hyland, a noted postoffice swindler, was convicted on two counts for swindling Postmaster Newton of Newark, Ohio, out of $200 last summer and sentenced to the State Prison for six years by Judge Sage in the United States Court this afternoon. Hyland's confederate, Leroy Harris, is now in Joliet Prison. Harris was formerly in charge of Station L of the New York city postoffice, and the two used his knowledge of postoffice money order work to beat postmasters in the country towns.

Michigan Men Beeming Alger.

Canton, Ohio, Dec. 6.—The President-lect had another arduous day and was kept busy at the house from 10 in the morning till nearly 10 at night receiving visitors. Many of the callers were important and had significant and interesting, information to impart. The first imposing delegation in the interests of a Cabinet possibility called to-day. Some of the foremost men of Michigan visited Major McKinley this afternoon to ask him to consider the name of Gen. R. A. Alger when he formed his Cabinet.

Four Men Reported Killed. Norwich, Conn., Dec. 6.—It is reported that a freight train was wrecked on the Central Vermont Railroad ten miles north of Willimantic tonight and that four men were killed. A wrecking train has just passed through here.
