str. Wilfrid Agrees With Sir Charles

That Daylight Should Shine on the Negotiations.

Ottawa, June 2.—(Special).—Sir Charles Tupper the House today that with the permission of the House he would read a telegram which had just been received from London on a very important question which he was sure would interest the House.

London, June 2, 1899.—The Times and other New York and Washington telegrams continue to abuse Canada for daring to reject the agreement between Lord Salisbury and Mr. Choate regarding the Alaskan boundary after the signing of the Joint High Commission in February. What the British public would much like to know is whether Canada was fully consulted in the negotiations of this agreement. If not, Canada will receive much sympathy here. As the Outlook says to-day:
"The British public feel that the day has gone by when any self-governing British colony can be dragged into a settlement in which it has no say.
Canada is no self; it is not even a child.
She is a junior partner and has a junior partner's rights, and the word being always with the senior partner." Sir Charles: I am not quite sure of that.
Mr. Smaller: His Washington friends would ignore this if they could but it remains a central fact in the administration of our Empire, the British Empire. A full official Canadian statement is greatly needed, not only to set the allegations with which the Washington telegrams are prejudicing opinion again Canada.

What Sir Wilfrid Said.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier: I am happy to say, and, indeed, I will surprise nobody in this House by stating that the British authorities, the Foreign Office, through the Colonial Office, has kept us fully informed of the negotiations between the Foreign Office and the American Ambassador at the court of St. James'. Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to be in a position to place before the House and the Canadian public the whole of the negotiations and the views we have expressed upon the questions referred to us. But, as my hon. friend knows, I am not in a position to state anything at this moment. I noticed particularly the ending words of the questions from the Star, which has just been read by my hon. friend, that a full official statement coming from the Canadian side of this question would be much appreciated in England.

Facts Are Needed.

"I can fully reciprocate that sentiment, and wish we were in a position to make such a statement, and I believe if we were a good deal of the anxiety which prevails in some quarters would be relieved at the same time. I believe, also, that a good deal of the clouds which apparently surround this question, and more or less understand this question, which has been elicited in some quarters, would also be removed. But, so long as the negotiations continue it is quite certain I will not be in a position to give out anything to the public. I may say, however, that, as the question of the Yukon boundary has been removed by the conference from the question with which it had to deal, and referred to the respective Governments, British and American, and that therefore so far as the Commission is concerned, that matter is no longer pending before the Commission, I am not without hope, because the session is over, that the last protocol on the conference may be laid on the table."

Other Questions Pending.

"Of course, I need not remind the House that all the other questions are pending before the conference at this moment.
It would not be possible to give in publicly what took place, but this one particular question, as it is no longer among the subjects to be treated by the conference, and therefore, so far as it goes, the negotiations are closed, that is so far as the conference is concerned, I may say, for my part, I see no objection. On the contrary, I see a good deal to be said in favor of insisting the true position placed before the public as it was when we adjourned the conference."

Lawn Tennis at Varsity.

The annual spring tourney of the Varsity L.T.C. will commence on Monday at 10 a.m. Entries will close at 6 p.m. to-day and as the entry list promises to be large, and the courts are in good condition the management expect to make this year's tournament a greater success than ever. Entries to the ladies' singles will be accepted until Monday evening.

Varsity will meet their old rivals, Osgoode, this afternoon in the opening game of the City League. As these two teams were tied for the championship last season, the Varsity courts ought to be the scene of a good match. The teams for this afternoon will have almost the same team which won out in the finals last season, and as there are several promising additions to the club membership this season, it is expected that the team will stand well up in the race this season. The team today will be Paterson, Bertram, Dingman, Morrison, Smart and Teeble.

solved to be satisfied with only the best in a Piano.

Toronto World, April 7, 1899.—Musical Column—"The Grand Piano, selected by Mr. Bernheimer for his concert, is of Canadian and Toronto make—Heintzman & Co., and one mentally institutes a comparison. Within the past few weeks we have had Sauer with a Knabe, Rosenthal with a Steinway, and Carreno with a Chickering. Last night we had a great artist with a piano made right here, and all present must have felt gratified with the feeling that the home-made article is as good as can be had. Indeed some remarked that the bass of the Heintzman & Co. was the firmest and roundest of all, while the upper tones possessed a singing, yet mellow quality that could not be exceeded."

JOHN KAY, SON & CO., "Canada's Greatest Carpet and Curtain House"

REMOVAL SALE

$150,000 Worth of Best in Carpets, Rugs, Linoleums, Curtains, Draperies and Bric-a-brac to be Cleared Within Thirty Days.

Contractors promise us possession of our new and handsome store for the early days of July. Between now and then our resolve is reduce the present immense stock to the smallest possible size. Carpets, linoleums and rugs are heavy and awkward goods to remove.

We shall influence you to help in this removal by making prices exceptionally attractive. And this is to be said, that when this store announces a special sale it is a special sale in the true and honest significance of the term. We believe in the old-fashioned kind of honesty that deals frankly and squarely with the customer at all times and in every particular. A removal sale here is a removal sale. Special prices are special prices. Discounts are real discounts from real prices.

Extra interest attaches to the sale of goods by this house, because it is well known that at all times we offer exceptional values and a class of goods that are thoroughly reliable, and are unusually choice and select in style and materials. We have always in the carpet and drapery section many lines that are made specially for our own trade and to our own designs.

In size you know that nowhere in Toronto is there to found a stock that nearly approaches ours. We have much need for the enlarged premises that are now being completed for our trade. This year our importations, selected personally by our own buyers, have been heavier than usual—conditions that give emphasis to the importance of this sale.

We give you in plain terms the programme of this sale.
It is a cash sale. Every article in the store is always marked in plain figures and at our closest selling prices. For example you will find certain lines of curtains that we marked down. The price remains on the goods for you to see for yourself. That everyone may have equal advantage we will follow a plan of special discounts throughout the house, to wit: All carpets, oilcloths and linoleums, a straight discount of 15 per cent. will be given of the marked prices. The one exception in this case will be Staines' inlaid linoleums, which have been selling at the cut price of $1.25. They will be sold net at $1.15, and a dollar line at 90c.
In rugs, and we have simply an enormous stock, a straight discount of 20 per cent. will be given off the marked prices.
In curtains, draperies, furniture coverings, bric-a-brac and the many beautiful lines of goods to be found in the drapery section, a discount of 25 per cent. will be allowed off marked prices.

Get this clear into your mind that the whole stock consists almost entirely of new goods. We have little or nothing of odds and ends and undesirable goods to offer shoppers.

opportunity for summer brides—this sale is full of significance. Hotels and boarding houses will find it a paying investment to buy from these stocks in anticipation of their early fall requirements, as well as needs of the present.

The sale will commence at 8.30 o'clock on Monday morning, full preparations having been made for what we believe will be an immense carpet and curtain trade. You have the advantage in buying at this store of securing the advice and suggestions of those who have a thorough knowledge of the carpet and curtain business in all its details and branches. You can depend on just what is told you of the goods that will be offered you.
