During the Week-Some Issues Up and Others Down-Money Scarce for Speculative Purposes

World Office,
Saturday Evg., Jan. 12.

Despite the active demand in Canada for none to business and industrial enterprises and the consequent difficulty of security purposes, the Canadian security market has, during the past week, evinced a markedig buoyant tone. The exceptions are in the mining list, most other stocks being quoted from a fraction to several points affer than a week ago. The activity and strength of the market has linker than a week ago. Of course, the most favorable circumstance for the bulks is the continued ease of money. There is plenty of w in New York, and there appears to be less likelihood than some time since of gold exports to England. The Bank of England reserves increased heavily the past week, owing, practically, to the raising of the discount rate the week before.

The best people on Wall-street see evidence of top-heaviness in certain of the securities. According to the belief of some of the more conservative brokers, the light of the market for several days past, and it is believed to account for the irregular movement which has caused certain stocks to gain sharply while others have sold off. Some of the more conservative brokerage houses are insisting on their weak-kneed customers increasing margins.
