Wall St. Issues Turn Weak After Early Strength — Canadians Dull Without Weakness.

YOUR

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 11.

Local stocks were exceedingly dull to-day, but the weakness at New York was largely ignored, and the quotations were at steady prices. The only exception was C. P. R., which had a weak undertone, without special pressure. Dealings in this issue, were unusually light, and the promised settlement of the engineers' demands had no effect on sentiment. Steel bonds developed activity to-day, but there was no significance to the movement. A deal of the transactions were reported as put thru, and any effective purchase of these issues was ridecided. Twin City and Sao Paulo were two strong stocks, but a portion of the strength in these was attributed to manipulation. Northern Navigation continued to be enquired for, and the buying was characterized as good. The rumor of an attempt to secure a controlling interest in this security was thought to have some foundation. Banks were dull and practi-
